TITLE OF INFORMATION COLLECTION:

Cancer Prevention Fellowship Program (CPFP) Speaking About Science Workshop Survey

PURPOSE:

The Speaking about Training Workshop is an opportunity for Cancer Prevention Fellowship Program (CPFP) Fellows to gain training in giving presentations about their scientific research. The purpose of this survey is to have Fellows assess the facilitators of this training and to assess the skills learned from this workshop. The information is collected to identify areas of improvement, determine future planning and to garner feedback of the facilitator.

This workshop occurs annually. This survey will be administered at the 2018 workshop and the 2019 workshop to the attending fellows. The attending fellows will be different participants from year to year.

DESCRIPTION OF RESPONDENTS:

Respondents will be Cancer Prevention Fellows (CPFs) who are postdoctoral research fellows within the Division of Cancer Prevention at the National Cancer Institute.

If you are conducting a focus group, survey, or plan to employ statistical methods, please provide answers to the following questions:

The selection of your targeted respondents

1. Do you have a customer list or something similar that defines the universe of potential respondents and do you have a sampling plan for selecting from this universe?

[x] Yes [] No

If the answer is yes, please provide a description of both below (or attach the sampling plan)? If the answer is no, please provide a description of how you plan to identify your potential group of respondents and how you will select them?

The CPFP office maintains names and email addresses of all current CPFs, and this list provides us with information on all our potential respondents. We plan to sample all of the potential respondents (CPFs).
