In addition, you do not need to report service as a member of an advisory board or committee if the following criteria are met:

(1) the advisory board or committee is that of a non-profit organization; (2) your service is unpaid; and (3) you have no fiduciary duties of the sort exercised by officers, directors, or trustees.

Applicability: All filers complete Part 2.

Reporting Period:

Candidate, Nominee, or New Entrant: Preceding calendar year and current year to filing date

Annual: Preceding calendar year

Reporting Requirement:

- Report each source of your earned and other non-investment income over $200 during the reporting period (e.g., salary, fees, partnership share and other business income, honoraria, scholarships, and prizes).
- Report each asset related to your business, employment, or other income-generating activities if the value of the asset at the end of the reporting period exceeded $1,000 or if the asset produced more than $200 in income during the reporting period (e.g., equity in business or partnership, stock options, retirement plans/accounts and their underlying holdings as appropriate, anticipated payments such as severance payments, deferred compensation, and intellectual property such as book deals and patents).

Exceptions:

Do not include assets or income from United States Government employment. In addition, do not include assets that were acquired separately from your business, employment, or other income-generating activities (e.g., assets purchased through a brokerage account) because you will report these assets in Part 6.

Completing the Fields:

Description: Provide a description sufficient to identify the asset or source being reported.

EIF: If you are reporting an investment vehicle that invests in assets of its own, you need to report each underlying asset that was individually worth more than $1,000 at the end of the reporting period or that individually produced more than $200 in income during the reporting period. As an exception to this requirement, however, you do not need to report the underlying assets of an investment vehicle that qualifies as an excepted investment fund (EIF). Exceptions:

Do not report the following: (1) agreements and arrangements with the United States Government, such as your participation in the Federal Employees Retirement System or the Civil Service Retirement System; (2) agreements and arrangements of your spouse or your dependent children; (3) if you are a Presidential nominee, any agreement or arrangement that will end before you file your Nominee report; and (4) if you are filing a New Entrant report, any agreement or arrangement that ended prior to the beginning of your appointment to your current position.

Nominee or New Entrant: Preceding two calendar years and current year to filing date

Other Reports: N/A

Reporting Requirement:

Report any source (except the United States Government) that paid more than $5,000 for your services during any year of the reporting period. Report employers and any clients to whom you personally provided services. You must report a source even if the source made its payment to your employer and not to you. Do not report a client who paid your employer if you did not provide the services for which the client made the payment.

Exception:

In certain rare cases, you need not provide the identity of confidential clients. In those cases, indicate the number of confidential clients that have not been disclosed (e.g., "2 confidential clients not disclosed").

Completing the Fields:

Source Name: Provide the name of the source.

City/State: Provide the city and state in which this source is located.

Brief Description of Duties: Provide a brief description of your duties or the type of services rendered.

* Confidential Clients: You do not need to report the identity of a client if the client's identity is protected by a court order or is under seal. In limited circumstances, the exception may also apply if the client is considered confidential because:

1. the client is the subject of a pending grand jury proceeding or other non-public investigation in which there are no public filings, statements, appearances, or reports that identify him or her;
2. disclosure is prohibited by a rule of professional conduct that can be enforced by a professional licensing body; or
3. a privileged relationship was established by a written confidentiality agreement, entered into at the time that your services were retained, that expressly prohibits disclosure of the client's identity.

A client will not be deemed confidential merely based on the filer's belief that the client would prefer not to be disclosed or based on the fame or social standing of the client.

Nothing to Report: If you do not have anything to report and you are filing a Nominee or New Entrant report, write "None."

Instructions for Completing Part 5 of the OGE Form 278e: Spouse's Employment Assets & Income and Retirement Accounts

- Report each asset related to your spouse's employment, business activities, other income-generating activities that (1) ended the reporting period with a value greater than $1,000 or (2) produced more than $200 in income during the reporting period (e.g., equity in business or partnership, stock options, retirement plans/accounts and their underlying holdings as appropriate, deferred compensation, and intellectual property, such as book deals and patents).

Exceptions:

Do not include assets or income from United States Government employment. Completing the Fields:

Complete these fields using the instructions from Part 2 with two exceptions. First, you do not need to provide the exact amount of your spouse's earned income, other than honoraria. Instead, simply describe the type of income in the Income Type field and leave the Income Amount field blank. Second, the value and income amount fields include a category labeled "Over $1,000,000." You may use this category or you may use the higher value and amount categories.

Nothing to Report: If you do not have anything to report, write "None."

Exceptions:

Do not report any of the following: (1) a personal residence that you did not rent out during the reporting period; (2) retirement benefits from the United States Government, including the Thrift Savings Plan; (3) income from social security, veterans' benefits, and other similar United States Government benefits; (4) deposits in a single financial institution aggregating $5,000 or less in money market accounts, certificates of deposit, savings accounts, checking accounts or other cash deposits; (5) shares in a single money market mutual fund aggregating $5,000 or less; (6) loans made by you or your spouse to each other or to a parent, sibling, child, or grandchild; (7) interests of a spouse living separate and apart with the intention of terminating the marriage or providing for a permanent separation; (8) interests of a former spouse or a spouse from whom you are permanently separated;

Completing the Fields:

- If you are not a nominee or appointee to a Presidentially-appointed, Senate-confirmed (PAS) position, you do not need to report a mortgage or home equity loan secured by your personal residence, unless you rented out the personal residence during the reporting period. However, you must report mortgages or home equity loans on properties that do not qualify as personal residences.
