Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 12 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintain the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to, the Paper Reduction Act Clearance Officer, Legal Division, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, 550 17th St. NW, Washington, D.C. 20429; and to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project (3064-0127), Washington, D.C. 20503. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

FDIC 4100/06 (7/18)

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) has undertaken a project to redesign our internet applications to make them more user-friendly and provide additional functionality in support of our mission to provide reliable data to the public. The FDIC will be making these redesigned applications publically available through multiple incremental releases over the next several months. We would appreciate your feedback on the current FDIC.gov website so that we can continuously improve our applications and meet your needs. The survey is voluntary and anonymous, and will take about 12 minutes to complete.
