AS1. [ONLY ASK THIS QUESTION IF CHILD IS 0-1 YEAR OLD AND IF BIOLOGICAL MOTHER]

Did you have any prenatal care during this most recent (or current) pregnancy? Prenatal care is given by a healthcare provider and includes a physical exam, weight checks, and providing a urine sample. Depending on the stage of the pregnancy, healthcare providers may also do blood tests and imaging tests, such as ultrasound exams. These visits also include discussions about the mother's health, the infant's health, and any questions about the pregnancy.
