Instructions for completing the Ebola Diagnostic Specimen Submission Form for quarantined non-human primate materials

- Send specimens by overnight courier (Federal Express preferred). Fax the Tracking Number and packing list to VSPB at (404) 639-1509 or (404) 639-1118.
- Package in accordance with the International Air Transport Association and US Department of Transportation regulations to prevent leakage. (See <https://www.iata.org/publications/dgr/Pages/manuals.aspx> and http://www.hercenter.org/regsandstandards/Transporting_Infectious_Substances_Safely.pdf)
- Label shipment as Diagnostic Specimen and include the following information: test(s) requested, date of collection, laboratory or accession number, the type of specimen being shipped, and this Specimen Submission Form.
- On the outside of the box, specify how the specimen should be stored: Refrigerated, Frozen, or Do Not Refrigerate.
- A payment of $540 US is due upon completion of testing. CDC accepts Visa and Mastercard. Please provide billing information on next page.

For Ebola antigen detection:

- Requires fresh-frozen tissues collected during necropsy
- Be sure to adhere to the Biosafety and Personal Protective equipment requirement when collecting and packaging specimens.
- Tissues required: liver (Spleen can be added but is not required.)
- Collect 2 pieces of at least 1cm³ each, and put them in two separate plastic tubes, correctly labeled. Tube caps should be tight to avoid leakage during manipulation and transportation.
- Put each tube in zip-locked or heat-sealed bag.
- Tissues must be shipped on dry ice or frozen cold pack.
- The accompanying documentation should be in another zip-locked (or sealed) bag to avoid contamination in case of leakage.

PAYMENT INFORMATION

Payments can be made at PAY.GOV or by check. Upon submission of this form, an electronic invoice is generated by CDC, and sent to the email address of the sender. (Be sure to send us the completed form from a monitored email address.) Instructions for payment by credit card or by check are included in the electronic invoice document. Note that while samples will be tested as soon as they are received, test results are not released until payment is received.
