Collection and Use of Personal Information

See Revised Privacy Act Statement

~~Sections 205(a) and 1631(e)(1)(A) and (B) of the Social Security Act, as amended, [42 U.S.C. 405(a)] and [42 U.S.C. 1383(e)(1)(A) and (B)] authorize us to collect this information. We will use the information you provide to help us establish age and or citizenship.~~

~~The information you provide on this form is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information may prevent an accurate and timely decision on any claim filed, or could result in the loss of benefits. We rarely use the information you provide on this form for any purpose other than for the reasons explained above. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of Social Security programs. We may also disclose information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, including but not limited to the following:~~

- ~~1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist us in establishing rights to Social Security benefits and or coverage;~~
- ~~2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from our records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office, General Services Administration, National Archives Records Administration, and the Department of Veterans Affairs);~~
- ~~3. To make determinations for eligibility in similar health and income maintenance programs at the Federal, State, and local level; and~~
- ~~4. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to assure the integrity and improvement of our programs (e.g., to the U.S. Census Bureau and to private entities under contract with us).~~

~~We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, state, or local government agencies. We use the information from these programs to establish or verify a person's eligibility for federally funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect payments or delinquent debts under these programs.~~

~~Additional information regarding this form, routine uses of information, and our systems and programs, is available on-line at www.socialsecurity.gov or at any Social Security office.~~

Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 205(a), 1614(a)(1)(B), and 1631(e)(1)(A) and (B) of the Social Security Act, as amended, allow us to collect this information. We will use the information you provide to help us establish age and or citizenship of the applicant for one or more Social Security benefit(s).

Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide us with all or part of the information may prevent us from making an accurate and timely decision on any claim filed, or could result in the loss of benefits.

We rarely use the information you supply for any purpose other than what we state above, however, we may use the information for the administration of our programs including sharing information:

1. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from our records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans Affairs); and,
2. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to ensure the integrity and improvement of our programs (e.g., to the Bureau of the Census and to private entities under contract with us).

A complete list of when we may share your information with others, called routine uses, is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notices 60-0090, entitled Claims Folders Systems and 60-0103, entitled Supplemental Security Income Record and Special Veterans Benefits. Additional information about these and other system of records notices and our programs are available from our Internet website at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.

We may share the information you provide to other health agencies through computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local government agencies. We use the information from these programs to establish or verify a person's eligibility for federally funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect payments or delinquent debts under these programs.

SSA will insert the following revised PRA Statement into the form at its next scheduled reprinting:
