Organizations, pro bono referral services, and individual private attorneys may use this form (Form EOIR-56) to apply for placement on the List of Pro Bono Legal Service Providers (List) for individuals in immigration court proceedings, and to make a renewal request to remain on the List. The List provides names of organizations, referral services, and attorneys available to provide pro bono legal services to persons in immigration court proceedings before the Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR). The List is published quarterly, in January, April, July, and October. To be considered, applicants should submit the form not later than 60 days prior to the first day of the month in which the next quarterly update will be published. Applications received less than 60 days prior to that date will not be considered until the following quarterly update. To save this form at any time, scroll to the top of the page and click the "Save" button. For more information about applying to be on the List of Pro Bono Legal Service Providers, visit the EOIR website at:  http://www.justice.gov/eoir/probono/probono.htm
B. Who is eligible to be included on the List:
(Click to show/hide text)
Organizations, pro bono referral services, and private attorneys may apply to be placed on the List. Organizations and private attorneys must commit to providing annually at least 50 hours of pro bono legal services to individuals in proceedings at each immigration court location where the organization or attorney intends to appear on the List. "Pro bono legal services" are those uncompensated legal services performed for individuals or for the public good without any expectation of payment from the onset of the case. Even if a client was only charged "nominal fees" or consultation or intake fees, any legal services provided that client would not count towards the 50 hours of pro bono legal services. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>An "organization" must be a non-profit religious, charitable, social service or similar group established in the United States. Organizations include both organizations recognized by EOIR under 8 CFR part 1292 and non-recognized organizations. A Recognized Organization must have at least one attorney or an Accredited Representative eligible to practice before the immigration courts. Non-recognized organizations must have attorney on staff.</li> <li>A "pro bono referral service" is a service, offered by a non-profit group, association, or similar organization established in the United States that assists persons in locating pro bono representation by making case referrals to attorneys or organizations that are available to provide pro bono representation in immigration court proceedings. A service that refers individuals for paid legal services does not qualify.</li> <li>An "attorney" in private practice in the United States may be eligible to be included on the List only if the private attorney cannot provide pro bono legal services through or in association with an organization or pro bono referral service. Attorneys from the same law firm must apply individually.</li> </ul>
