PRIVACY ACT NOTICE AND PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT

PRIVACY ACT INFORMATION: VA will not disclose information collected on this form to any source other than what has been authorized under the Privacy Act of 1974 or Title 38, Code of Federal Regulations 1.576 for routine uses (i.e., civil or criminal law enforcement, congressional communications, epidemiological or research studies, the collection of money owed to the United States, litigation in which the United States is a party or has an interest, the administration of VA programs and delivery of VA benefits, verification of identity and status, and personnel administration) as identified in the VA system of records. Your obligation to respond is voluntary; however, no reimbursement may be granted unless this form is completed fully as required by law. Providing the applicant's or spouse's Social Security numbers is mandatory. VA will not deny an individual benefits for refusing to provide his or her SSN unless the disclosure of the SSN is required by a Federal Statute of law in effect prior to January 1, 1975, and still in effect. The requested information is considered relevant and necessary to determine maximum benefits under the law.

RESPONDENT BURDEN: VA is asking you to provide the information on this form under Public Law 114-223 section 260 and 38 CFR 17.390 in order for VA to determine your eligibility for reimbursement of qualifying adoption expenses (38 U.S.C. 5101). Title 38, United States Code, allows us to ask for this information. We estimate that you will need an average of 6 hours to review the instructions, find the information, and complete this form. VA cannot conduct or sponsor a collection of information unless a valid OMB control number is displayed. You are not required to respond to a collection of information if this number is not displayed. Valid OMB control numbers can be located on the OMB Internet Page at www.reginfo.gov/public/do/PRAMain. If desired, you can call 1-800-827-1000 to get information on where to send comments or suggestions about this form.

APPLICATION PROCESSING INSTRUCTIONS

1. This form must be completed in its entirety and affirmed by the veteran.
2. The veteran will provide documentations supporting placement by an authorized source, any final court papers including translations if necessary, all substantiating receipts in U.S. currency amounts with the claim, and in the case of foreign adoptions, submit proof of U.S. citizenship for the adopted child.
3. The veteran must retain copies of all paperwork until the claim is paid or denied.
4. The completed form and claim application package, with original signature of the veteran, must be submitted.
5. If the adoption and expenses are eligible for reimbursement, VA will approve and certify payment. Reimbursement will be by Electronic Fund Transfer (EFT) to the applicant's EFT account.
6. If eligibility for reimbursement cannot be determined from the documents provided or claimed expenses are not properly supported by receipts, VA will retain the claim and request the necessary information or documentation. The additional information or documentation must be submitted within 90 days for the claim to be considered.
7. If the claim is denied, VA will notify the applicant in writing.

Purpose:

This form may be used by a covered veteran to request reimbursement of qualifying adoption expenses. A covered veteran may request reimbursement for qualifying adoption expenses incurred by the veteran in the adoption of a child under 18 years of age.

1. An adoption for which expenses may be reimbursed includes an adoption by a married or single person, an infant adoption, an intercountry adoption, and an adoption of a child with special needs (as defined in section 473(c) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 673(c)).
2. Reimbursement for qualifying adoption expenses may be requested only for an adoption that became final after September 29, 2016.
3. In the case of adoption of a foreign child, reimbursement for qualifying adoption expenses may be requested only after United States citizenship has been granted to the adopted child.
4. Reimbursement for qualifying adoption expenses may not be paid for any expense paid to or for a covered veteran under any other adoption benefits program administered by the Federal Government or under any such program administered by a State or local government.

How To Submit:

Send your application and any evidence in support of your claim to the following address:

Department of Veterans Affairs
Evidence Intake Center
PO Box 4444
Janesville, WI 53547-4444

Applying for additional allowance for dependents.

Who is a "covered veteran" ?

"Covered veteran" means a veteran with a service-connected disability that results in the inability of the veteran to procreate without the use of fertility treatment.

What is a "qualifying adoption expense"?

"Qualifying adoption expenses" means reasonable and necessary expenses that are directly related to the legal adoption of a child under 18 years of age, but only if such adoption is arranged by a qualified adoption agency or other source authorized to place children for adoption under State, foreign or local law. Such term does not include any expense incurred:

1. for incidentals such as clothing, bedding, and books;
2. by an adopting parent for travel; or
3. in connection with an adoption arranged in violation of Federal, State, or local law.

What does “reasonable and necessary expenses” mean?

“Reasonable and necessary expenses” includes:

1. public and private agency fees, including adoption fees charged by an agency in a foreign country;
2. placement fees, including fees charged adoptive parents for counseling;
3. legal fees (including court costs);
4. medical expenses, including hospital expenses of the biological mother of the child to be adopted and of a newborn infant to be adopted; and
5. temporary foster care charges when payment of such charges is required before the adoptive child’s placement.

What is a “qualified adoption agency”?

“Qualified adoption agency” means any of the following:

1. A State or local government agency which has responsibility under State or local law for child placement through adoption.
2. A nonprofit, voluntary adoption agency which is authorized by State or local law to place children for adoption.
3. Any other source authorized by a State to provide adoption placement if the adoption is supervised by a court under State or local law.
4. A foreign government or an agency authorized by a foreign government to place children for adoption, in any case in which:
 - a. the adopted child is entitled to automatic citizenship under section 320 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1431); or
 - b. a certificate of citizenship has been issued for such child under section 322 of that Act (8 U.S.C. 1433).

Filing deadlines:

Reimbursement for qualifying adoption expenses must be requested:

1. no later than 2 years after the adoption is final; or,
2. in the case of adoption of a foreign child, no later than 2 years from the date the certificate of United States citizenship is issued.

Reimbursement limits:

1. Reimbursement per adopted child. No more than $2,000 may be reimbursed to a covered veteran, or to two such covered veterans who are spouses of each other, for expenses incurred in the adoption of a child.
2. Maximum reimbursement in any calendar year. No more than $5,000 may be paid to a covered veteran, or to two such covered veterans who are spouses of each other, for adoptions by such veteran (or veterans) in any calendar year.

Authority:

Authority to provide reimbursement for qualifying adoption expenses incurred by the veteran in the adoption of a child under 18 years of age expires September 30, 2018.

Required documentation:

A copy (not original) of the following documents must be submitted with the application to establish eligibility for reimbursement of qualifying adoption expenses.

NOTE: The covered veteran must submit a full English translation of any foreign language document, to include the translator’s certification that he or she is competent to translate the foreign language to English and that his or her translation is complete and correct.

To establish:

1. That you are a covered veteran for U.S. adoptions and adoption of a foreign child:

A VA determination that you are a veteran with a service-connected disability that results in the inability of the veteran to procreate without the use of fertility treatment.

2. That the adoption is final for:

U.S. adoptions: A copy of the final adoption decree, certificate or court order granting the adoption. For U.S. adoptions, the court order must be signed by a judge unless either State law or local court rules provide that the adoption order may be signed by a commissioner, magistrate or court referee.

Adoption of a foreign child: For foreign adoptions, a court order or other instrument signed by a judge or other official authorized under the laws of the foreign country to issue such order or instrument.

3. Proof of citizenship:

For foreign adoptions or adoption of a foreign child, proof of U.S. citizenship of the child, including any of the following:

- (i) A copy of Certificate of Citizenship.
- (ii) A copy of a U.S. court order that recognizes the foreign adoption, or documents the “re-adopting” of the child in the United States.
- (iii) A letter from the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services, which states the status of the child’s adoption.
- (iv) A copy of U.S. passport (page with personal information only).

4. That the adoption was handled by a qualified adoption agency:

For U.S. adoptions: You must have documentation to show that the adoption was handled by a qualified adoption agency or other source authorized by a State or local law to provide adoption placement.

Other acceptable forms of proof that the adoption was handled by a qualified adoption agency include:

- (i) A copy of placement agreement from the adoption agency showing the agreement entered into between the member and the agency.
- (ii) A letter from the adoption agency stating that the agency arranged the adoption and that the agency is a licensed child placing agency in the United States.
- (iii) Receipts for payment to the adoption agency, as well as proof, (e.g., a copy of the agency’s web page), of the agency’s status as a for-profit or non-profit licensed child placing agency.

For foreign adoptions: You must have documentation that the adoption was handled by a qualified agency and must include a document that describes the mission of the foreign agency and its authority from the foreign government to place children for adoption; and placement agreement from the adoption agency or letter from adoption agency stating the specific services it provided for the adoption.

Other acceptable forms of proof that the adoption was handled by a qualified adoption agency include:

- (i) A copy of placement agreement from the adoption agency showing the agreement entered into between the member and the agency.
- (ii) A letter from the adoption agency stating that the agency arranged the adoption and that the agency is a licensed child placing agency in the United States.
- (iii) Receipts for payment to the adoption agency, as well as proof, (e.g., a copy of the agency’s web page), of the agency’s status as a for-profit or non-profit licensed child placing agency.

5. Reasonable and necessary expenses paid by the covered veteran:

Acceptable forms of documentation include receipts, cancelled checks, or a letter from the adoption agency showing the amount paid by the member. Receipts from a foreign entity should include the U.S. currency equivalency. Reconstruction of expense records is permissible when the original records are unavailable and the covered veteran submits a notarized affidavit stating the costs.
