INSTRUCTIONS SHARC APPLICATION FOR RURAL RESIDENT

PROGRAM INFORMATION

The Subsistence Halibut Fishery is authorized by Federal regulations at 50 CFR part 300 and provides for eligible persons to conduct subsistence halibut fishing in Convention waters off Alaska.

Subsistence halibut means halibut caught by a rural resident or a member of an Alaska Native tribe for direct personal or family consumption as food, sharing for personal or family consumption as food, or customary trade.

Eligible persons are residents of particular rural communities or rural areas and all identified members of federally recognized Alaska Native tribes.

A rural SHARC may not be issued to anyone who has not maintained a domicile within the municipal or census boundaries for an eligible rural community or within a described rural area for 12 consecutive months prior to the date of application.

A rural SHARC may not be issued to anyone who is claiming residency in another state, territory, or country.

Rural Resident means, for purposes of the subsistence fishery for Pacific halibut in waters in and off Alaska:

- an individual domiciled in a rural community listed in the table at 50 CFR 300.65(g)(1), who has maintained a domicile in rural communities listed in the table at § 300.65(g)(1), or in rural areas described at § 300.65(g)(3), for the 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the time when the assertion of residence is made and who is not claiming residency in another state, territory, or country; or
- an individual domiciled in a rural area described at 50 CFR 300.65(g)(3) and who has maintained a domicile in rural areas described at § 300.65(g)(3), or in rural communities listed in the table at § 300.65(g)(1), for the 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the time when the assertion of residence is made, and who is not claiming residency in another state, territory, or country. The rural areas are as follows (for a full description including maps, please refer to the regulations referenced above):
- Southeast Alaska east of 141° W long., except for the land areas of the Ketchikan Gateway Borough on May 18, 2008, the land areas of the City and Borough of Juneau, and the Ketchikan and Juneau non-subsistence marine waters areas as these land and water areas are described in 50 CFR 300.65(g)(4).
- The Alaska Peninsula, Aleutian Islands, Kodiak Island Archipelago, and the area south of the northern boundary of the Bristol Bay Borough and south of 58° 39.2 N lat.
- Nelson, Nunivak, and Saint Lawrence Islands.
- All other areas of Alaska within 10-statute-miles of mean high water on the Bering Sea and Pacific Ocean coasts, south of Cape Espenberg, including along the Kuskokwim River to Bethel, and that are not specified as non-rural land or water areas as defined in 50 CFR 300.65(g)(4).
