PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 205(a) and 1106 of the Social Security Act, as amended, authorize us to collect certain information to permit access to our automated telephone applications to report, use, or submit claims related information to us. You do not have to use our telephone services and your responses to the questions we ask are voluntary. Failure to provide the information, however, will prevent you from using our automated telephone services.

We rarely use the information you give us for any purpose other than to grant access to our automated telephone services and for claims related business transactions. However, we may use the information you give us for the administration and integrity of our programs. We may also disclose information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, which include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from Social Security records (e.g. to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans Affairs);
2. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to assure the integrity and improvement of Social Security programs;
3. To respond to a request on your behalf from a Congressional office or the Office of the President; and
4. To other Federal agencies and our contractors, including external data sources, to assist us in efficiently administering our programs.

We may also use the information you give us in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local government agencies. We use the information from these programs to establish or verify a person's eligibility for federal-funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect payments or delinquent debts under these programs.

A complete list of routine uses for this information is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notice (SORN) entitled, Claims Folder System (60-0089). Additional information regarding this information collection, routine uses of information, and other Social Security programs are available from our Internet website at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.
