

Item Numbers of the Forms on Which the Question Appears

	Question on the RRA Form	Reason for Collecting this Information	Item Numbers of the Forms on Which the Question Appears
			Limited Recipient Identification Sheet	Trust Information Sheet	Public Entity Information Sheet	Religious or Charitable Org. Identification Sheet
Reclamation Use Only Section	Date requested	Provides a record of when the landholder was asked to complete the form.	X	X	X	X
	District name	Identifies the district in which the landholder holds land.	X	X	X	X
	Entity name	Identifies the landholder being asked to complete the form.	X	X	X	X
Landholder Section	Entity (trust, organization) name	Identifies the landholder completing the form; particularly useful in the event that the landholder uses a different or more specific name than is known by Reclamation.	1	1		1
	Entity (trust, organization) address	Establishes the landholder's proximity to the land.	2			2
	Total landholding in the district	Identifies the number of acres the landholder holds in the district.	3	5	1	3
	State or country where the entity (trust) is established or registered	Allows determination of proper entitlements. The country in which a foreign entity landholder is registered or established can affect eligibility and entitlements if the country has a certain treaty(ies) with the U.S.	4	4
	Receipt of Reclamation irrigation water on or before October 1, 1981; date on which, and district in which, such water was received	Ascertains whether a limited recipient's nonfull-cost entitlement is 320 acres (received Reclamation irrigation water on or before 10-1-81) or 0 acres (received water after 10-1-81).	5
	Designation of excess land by previous owner that was acquired without Reclamation sale price approval	Ascertains whether land in question is eligible to receive Reclamation irrigation water (i.e., whether the excess designation still applies to the land).			2
	Acres held in other districts and the name of those districts	Identifies the quantity and location of other westwide landholdings that count against a limited recipients acreage limitation entitlements.	6	6	3	4
	Wholly owned subsidiary or parent entity identification	Identifies other entities whose landholdings count against the limited recipient, or whose landholdings should include land held by the limited recipient	7
	Benefiting of 26 or more natural persons	Determines whether an entity is a limited or qualified recipient, which affects entitlements	8
	Date trust was established	Documents date land began to be held by the trust		2
	Trust's employer identification number	Facilitates identification of the trust		3
	Legal description of the land held in trust	Identifies the specific land parcels that are attributable to the trust		7

Item Numbers of the Forms on Which the Question Appears

	Question on the RRA Form	Reason for Collecting this Information	Limited Recipient Identification Sheet	Trust Information Sheet	Public Entity Information Sheet	Religious or Charitable Org. Identification Sheet
Landholder Section	Land held by the trust in other districts (district name and acres held)	Identifies land held in multiple districts for attribution determination purposes. In cases where Reclamation conducts its required trust review from the Trust Information Sheet in lieu of actual trust documents, this information provides what Reclamation would normally have to ascertain from the actual trust documents.		7
	Names and percentage of interest of current beneficiaries	Identifies the current beneficiaries of the trust, and the percentage of interest each hold in the trust for attribution determination purposes. In cases where Reclamation conducts its required trust review from the Trust Information Sheet in lieu of actual trust documents, this information provides what Reclamation would normally have to ascertain from the actual trust documents.		8
	Names of current trustees	Identifies the trustees for attribution determination purposes. In cases where Reclamation conducts its required trust review from the Trust Information Sheet in lieu of actual trust documents, this information provides what Reclamation would normally have to ascertain from the actual trust documents.		9
	Names of grantor(s) [creator(s)]	Identifies the grantor(s) for attribution determination purposes. In cases where Reclamation conducts its required trust review from the Trust Information Sheet in lieu of actual trust documents, this information provides what Reclamation would normally have to ascertain from the actual trust documents.		10

Item Numbers of the Forms on Which the Question Appears

	Question on the RRA Form	Reason for Collecting this Information	Limited Recipient Identification Sheet	Trust Information Sheet	Public Entity Information Sheet	Religious or Charitable Org. Identification Sheet
Landholder Section	Trust is in writing	These questions are required to determine whether the land held in trust must be attributed to the beneficiary(ies), the trustee(s), or in certain cases the grantor(s). This information is also required to identify indirect landholders and determine (1) how much land held by the trust is eligible to receive Reclamation irrigation water, and (2) the appropriate rate for such deliveries. Entitlements of the attributed parties may affect the eligibility of land held by trusts or estates to receive Reclamation irrigation water. In cases where Reclamation conducts its required trust review from the Trust Information Sheet in lieu of actual trust documents, this information provides what Reclamation would normally have to ascertain from the actual trust documents.		11
	Current beneficiaries and their interests in the trust are identified in the trust document			11
	Trust is revocable, and if so, the trust specifies who will hold to the land upon revocation			11
	Beneficiaries are 18 years of age and subject to the discretionary provisions			11
	Land held in trust, when combined with other landholdings, exceeds appropriate nonfull-cost entitlement of the beneficiaries, grantor, or parents or guardians of any beneficiary who is 18 or younger and subject to the discretionary provisions			11
	Trust landholdings include acquisition or disposition of land subject to secretarial price approval (excess land)			11
	Land held in trust benefits limited recipient entities or prior law entities that benefit more than 25 persons			11
	Public entity is a federal entity or a public school district		Ascertains whether a some or all of the public entity's landholdings may be subject to the acreage limitation provisions.			4 5
	Public entity acquired or began to lease land from another party after December 31, 2004.	Ascertains further whether some or all of the public entity's landholdings may be subject to the acreage limitation provisions.			6

Item Numbers of the Forms on Which the Question Appears

	Question on the RRA Form	Reason for Collecting this Information	Limited Recipient Identification Sheet	Trust Information Sheet	Public Entity Information Sheet	Religious or Charitable Org. Identification Sheet
Landholder Section	District name, number of owned acres, and number of leased acres for any land the public entity acquired or began to lease from another party after December 31, 2004	Ascertains further whether some or all of the public entity's landholdings may be subject to the acreage limitation provisions. Separates land that may be subject to the acreage limitation provisions into owned land versus leased land in order to correctly apply such land toward a public entity's acreage limitation entitlements.			7
	Total number of owned acres	Calculates land that may be subject to the acreage limitation provisions (owned land versus leased land) in order to correctly apply such land toward a public entity's acreage limitation entitlements.			7a
	Total number of leased acres				7b
	Total number of owned and leased acres				7c
	Land used for purposes other than the purposes specified in the regulations	Ascertains further whether some or all of the public entity's landholdings may be subject to the acreage limitation provisions.			8
	District name, legal description, number of acres, purpose for which the land is used, and total number of acres	Ascertains further whether some or all of the public entity's landholdings may be subject to the acreage limitation provisions.			9
	Revenue received from crops or lease payments	Ascertains further whether some or all of the public entity's landholdings may be subject to the acreage limitation provisions.			10
	Receipt of Reclamation irrigation water on or before October 1, 1981, and the district in which such water was received	Establishes the nonfull-cost entitlement of the public entity (organization)			11 12	6
	Tax exempt status under section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code	Ascertains whether an organization qualifies for special application of the RRA provisions, or should instead be treated as a limited recipient entity for acreage limitation purposes.				5
Use of produce or proceeds therefrom, operation or lease of land to other parties, net earnings that benefit a private shareholder or individual	Ascertains whether an organization qualifies for special application of the RRA provisions, or should instead be treated as a limited recipient entity for acreage limitation purposes.				7a 7b 7c
Attestation Section	Name, signature, date, address, telephone number, relationship to the entity, optional e-mail address	Authenticates the form, provides necessary identification information, and serves as confirmation of the accuracy of the information provided. Optional e-mail address provides another mode of communication with Reclamation, at the respondents' discretion.	X	X	13	X