Transfer Agent Registration and Amendment Form—Form TA-1

Under Sections 17(a)(3), 17A(c), and 23(a) of the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, the ARA's are authorized to solicit from applicants for registration as a transfer agent and from registered transfer agents the information required to be supplied by Form TA-1. Disclosure to the ARA of the information requested in Form TA-1 is a prerequisite to the processing of Form TA-1.

The information will be used for the principal purpose of determining whether the ARA should allow an application for registration to become effective or should deny, accelerate, or postpone registration to an applicant.

Information supplied on this form will be available for inspection by any interested person.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and an organization (or a person) is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Public reporting for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.25 hours per registration, and 10 minutes per updating amendment, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to: Secretary, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, 20th and C Streets, NW, Washington, DC 20551; or Assistant Executive Secretary, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Washington, DC 20429; or Legislative and Regulatory Activities Division, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, DC 20219; and to the Office of Management and Budget, ATTN: Paperwork Reduction Project (7100-0099, 1557-0124, 3064-0026), Washington, DC 20503.
