INITIAL PRIVACY ASSESSMENT (IPA)

The Initial Privacy Assessment (IPA) is use to determine whether a Privacy Impact Assessment (PIA) is required under the E-Government Act of 2002. The IPA is also used to determine if a System of Records Notice (SORN) is required under the Privacy Act of 1974.

The IPA is an administrative form created by the Privacy Branch to efficiently and effectively identify the use of Personally Identifiable Information (PII) across the Department. The IPA focuses on three areas of inquiry:

- Business data and business processes within each HUD program.
- Potential connections with individuals including the use of PII – any use of social security numbers must be specifically identified.

HUD's program and support offices should ensure that its respective IPA is completed and sent to the Privacy Branch for approval. If SSNs are to be used, the IPA specifically identifies the justification and authority for using SSNs. Upon receipt of the IPA, the Privacy Branch determines the applicability of other privacy compliance requirements including the PIA and SORN. The IPA is complete when the Privacy Branch signs it and sends the final copy back to the identified point of contact.

Please complete this form and send it to the HUD Privacy Branch staff.

SPECIFIC QUESTIONS

1. Describe the project and its purpose:

There are three components of this OMB collection, 2506-0085.

- The first, and largest component is the reporting by grantees on the accomplishments and use of CDBG funds. There are grantee-held records and reporting online through web-based forms in the Integrated Disbursement and Information System (IDIS).
- The second component is the HUD 40108 form for State grantees to report that they have made grant awards to local governments as required. This is separate from the first only because this reporting element is not integrated into IDIS.
- The third component is the colonias consultation process, although a questionnaire is involved, the purpose is consultation in determining the percentage of the set-aside amount.

2. Status of Project:

This is a new development effort.

This is an existing project.

4. Do you use or collect Social Security Numbers (SSNs)? (This includes truncated SSNs)

No.

Yes. Why does the program collect SSNs? Provide the function of the SSN and the legal authority to do so:

5. What information about individuals could be collected, generated or retained?

HUD's Integrated Disbursement and Information System (IDIS) is used by State CDBG grantees to report performance and compliance with the statutory and regulatory conditions of the program. Information reported in IDIS about individuals is limited to those members of grantee's staff, and includes their names, titles, addresses and phone numbers. Separately, the addresses of State CDBG-funded activities are also reported in IDIS. However, the identity of individuals benefiting from the program is not collected in IDIS.

This burden also includes the record-keeping requirements placed on the State and the units of general local government. For certain activity-types, the grantee-held records would contain information on individuals benefitting from the State CDBG program. The information may include individual's names, addresses, family-size, family-income, and employment status for the purposes of determining eligibility. Activities that generate an area-benefit (based on HUD-provided data), address slums and blight, or serve an urgent community need, would typically not have information on specific individuals. Activities that provide area-benefit (based on local survey), housing, jobs, or client services would have records on individuals. Such records are maintained by the grantee and made available to HUD for monitoring the performance of the program participants and ensuring compliance with all program requirements.

The HUD 40108 form and the Colonias Consultation do not involve the collection of information about individuals, nor are they integrated into IDIS.
