

Dear [Company Representative]:

Recently, the Florida Survey Research Center at the University of Florida sent you an email regarding a survey on behalf of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Food and Nutrition Service (FNS). As described in the email, we are asking you to complete the survey to better understand policies and practices that may contribute to lower rates of SNAP fraud. You were also sent a letter from Kathryn Law, Director of the USDA FNS SNAP Research and Analysis Division, Andrea Gold, Director of SNAP Retailer Policy and Management Division, and Neva Terry, Director of SNAP Retail Operations Division regarding this survey.

To complete the survey, please log on to <http://survey.gatorzone.com> using access code ZVLLFD. There you will find instructions on how to complete the survey. The survey will be available until _____.

If you have any questions about this survey, please feel free to contact me, Dr. Michael Scicchitano, toll-free at (866) 392-3475 or at mscicc@ufl.edu.

Thank you in advance for your time and participation.

Sincerely,

Michael J. Scicchitano, Ph.D.
Director

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 4 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to: U.S. Department of Agriculture, Food and Nutrition Services, Office of Policy Support, 3101 Park Center Drive, Room 1014, Alexandria, VA 22302