

APPENDIX H

BABY FACES 2009 INSTRUMENT INFORMATION

This page has been left blank for double sided copying.

Table H.1. Baby FACES 2009: Instrument components, type of administration, frequency and purpose

Instrument	How survey is administered	How often survey is administered	Overall goal of instrument	Source of items
Parent Interview	Age 1: CATI; Age 2,3: CATI/CAPI	Annually, until child is 3 years old	Describe the population served by EHS, including demographic characteristics, strengths and needs of families over time, and information on children's development over time.	Standard measures; adapted from other studies; developed for Baby FACES 2009
Program Director Interview	Semi-structured telephone interview with Mathematica staff	Annually	Describe the national EHS program, including variations and patterns of services provided to families, training and credentials of staff, and quality of services provided. Link change over time in child and family functioning to specific aspects of the program and services received	Adapted from other studies; developed for Baby FACES 2009
Primary Caregiver Interview	CATI	Annually	Describe the national EHS program, including variations and patterns of services provided to families, training and credentials of staff, and quality of services provided. Link change over time in child and family functioning to specific aspects of the program and services received	Adapted from other studies; developed for Baby FACES 2009
Home Visitor Interview	CATI	Annually	Describe the national EHS program, including variations and patterns of services provided to families, training and credentials of staff, and quality of services provided. Link change over time in child and family functioning to specific aspects of the program and services received	Adapted from other studies; developed for Baby FACES 2009

This page has been left blank for double sided copying.