

Development for kids 2-5 years

We are looking for families who were in our study before.

Families who participated while living in MD,
NC or PA may be eligible for the SEED Teen Study

Watch for a packet about SEED Teen in the mail!

SEED Teen will get updated health and development information by questionnaire or phone.

SEED Teen is a collaboration between CDC and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with assistance from Johns Hopkins University, the University of Pennsylvania and Children's Hospital of Philadelphia
