Dear _____:

We need the information listed below in connection with a Social Security claim. Your prompt reply is appreciated.

To determine entitlement to Social Security benefits, we need to know the first date that ______ could have received a pension from your organization. In some cases, we also need to know the amount of the pension.

The pension eligibility date may or may not be the actual retirement date. It is the date the person could have retired and received a pension had he or she chosen to do so.

AGENCY/EMPLOYER RESPONSE:

1. Date the person first met the eligibility requirements to receive a pension:

NOTE: If the date is prior to December 1, 1977, please omit questions 2-3, sign, and return in the enclosed envelope.

2. Pension amount as of

(month of entitlement to Social Security)
