Passport for Travel to North Korea

Travel Restriction

OMB Control Number #1405-XXXX

Expiration Date xx-xx-xxxx

As of XXX, U.S. passports will not be valid for travel to, in, or through North Korea (also known as Democratic People's Republic of Korea, or DPRK).

The U.S. Department of State may grant an exception to qualified applicants by issuing a Passport with a special validation that will be valid for only one trip. These specific, one-time-use validations will be issued on an extremely limited basis.

Travel to, in, or through North Korea on a U.S. passport without this Special Validation, may justify revocation of your passport for misuse under 22 C.F.R. § 51.62(a)(2), and may subject you to felony prosecution under 18 U.S.C. § 1544 or other applicable laws.

Who Can Get a Special Validation Passport?

We will only issue a Passport with a special validation if your trip is in the national interest and you meet all regular passport requirements.

Your trip might be in the national interest if any of the following are true:

- You are a professional reporter or journalist and the purpose of your trip is to collect, and make available to the public, information about the DPRK.
- You are a representative of the International Committee of the Red Cross or the American Red Cross traveling on an officially-sponsored Red Cross mission to the DPRK.
- Your trip to the DPRK is justified by compelling humanitarian considerations.
- Your trip to the DPRK is otherwise in the national interest.
