

Peace Corps Confidential Reference Form

Peace Corps Response Volunteers represent the United States and the American people in the countries and communities where they serve abroad. The Peace Corps expects Volunteers to conduct themselves at all times in a manner reflecting positively on the Peace Corps and the United States. Appropriate Volunteer conduct is critical because it is intimately tied to the safety and protection of Volunteers, and that of the communities and children they serve, as well as the reputation and effectiveness of Peace Corps programs. Please consider these factors carefully when completing this recommendation. Please include any information that may inform our assessment of the applicant's suitability to serve as a Peace Corps Volunteer.

1. How do you know the applicant?
2. How long have you known the applicant?
3. Please rate on a scale of 1 - 5 (with 1 being the lowest and 5 the highest) the applicant's abilities in the following areas:
 - a. Ability to work under minimal supervision and with limited resources/equipment
 - b. Flexibility in changing circumstances
 - c. Interpersonal skills
 - d. Responds maturely to stressful working situations
 - e. Sensitivity when working with people of different backgrounds
4. Do you know of any reasons why this individual should not work with children? (Yes or No)
