

SUPPORTING STATEMENT
Internal Revenue Service
Offshore Voluntary Disclosure Program (OVDP)
OMB Control No. 1545-2241

1. CIRCUMSTANCES NECESSITATING THE COLLECTION OF INFORMATION

The IRS is offering people with undisclosed income from offshore accounts an opportunity to get current with their tax returns. Taxpayers with undisclosed foreign accounts or entities should make a voluntary disclosure because it enables them to become compliant, avoid substantial civil penalties and generally eliminate the risk of criminal prosecution. The objective is to bring taxpayers that have used undisclosed foreign accounts and undisclosed foreign entities to avoid or evade tax into compliance with United States tax laws such as Internal Revenue Code §§ 6038, 6046, and 6048.

Form 15023 is part of the Decline and Withdrawal Campaign #208, related to Offshore Voluntary Disclosure Program (OVDP) taxpayers. Taxpayers are required to complete and submit this form with their response to Letter 5935. These associated tax returns are not under examination and preemptively soliciting a statute extensions is not warranted. In order to maintain the integrity of the OVDP program and campaign the soft letter must be sent in a timely manner. IRS cannot issue soft letters without the associated cover letter which has been converted into a form for consistency purposes.

2. USE OF DATA

The IRS will use this data to calculate, with a reasonable degree of certainty, the total cost of resolving all offshore tax issues.

The IRS's prior Offshore Voluntary Disclosure Program (2009 OVDP), and Offshore Voluntary Disclosure Initiative (2011 OVDP), which closed on September 9, 2011, demonstrated the value of a uniform penalty structure for taxpayers who came forward voluntarily and reported their previously undisclosed foreign accounts and assets. These initiatives enabled the IRS to centralize the civil processing of offshore voluntary disclosures and to resolve a very large number of cases without examination

In September 2012, the IRS announced a new offshore initiative entitled the Streamlined Non-filer program. This program was developed specifically for US citizens with income solely from non-us sources. Although this program was successful at closing the non-filer loop, this program did not allow for amended returns to be filed reporting previously unreported foreign sourced income. As a result, an enhanced process was developed in which taxpayers will be allowed to file amended returns in order to report previously unreported foreign source income while allowing a relief from penalties.

The purpose of the soft letter 5935 and Form 15023 is to gather additional, time sensitive information to determine if the risk of noncompliance warrants examination. Information in this form will allow the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) to associate any responses accordingly.

3. USE OF IMPROVED INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY TO REDUCE BURDEN

There are no plans at this time to use information technology as the focus on undisclosed foreign accounts or entities being used by taxpayers.

4. EFFORTS TO IDENTIFY DUPLICATION

The information obtained through this collection is unique and is not already available or use or adaption from another source.

5. METHODS TO MINIMIZE BURDEN ON SMALL BUSINESSES OROTHER SMALL ENTITIES

It is certified that the collection of information in these final regulations will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. This certification is based upon the fact that small employers that take advantage of the provisions in these regulations will likely see a modest reduction in the cost of providing pensions to their employees.

6. CONSEQUENCES OF LESS FREQUENT COLLECTION ON FEDERAL PROGRAMS

If the IRS did not collect this information, the taxpayer would not have the means to calculate the correct interest that would impact their tax liability and the revenue needed to support the Federal government. Failure to collect this information on Form 15023 will prevent the IRS from determining accurately the risk of noncompliance and causing public harm by a misallocation of resources for determining compliance. Significant delays in gathering supplemental information can lead to imminent and barred statutes, hindering IRS from meeting its mission.

7. SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES REQUIRING DATA TO BE INCONSISTENT WITH GUIDELINES IN 5 CFR 1320.5(d)(2)

There are no special circumstances requiring data collection to be inconsistent with Guidelines in 5 CFR 1320.5(d)(2).

8. CONSULTATION WITH INDIVIDUALS OUTSIDE OF THE AGENCY ON AVAILABILITYOF DATA, FREQUENCY OF COLLECTION, CLARITY OF INSTRUCTIONS AND FORMS AND DATA ELEMENTS

IRS began an open-ended Offshore Voluntary Disclosure Program (OVDP) in January 2012 on the heels of strong interest in the 2011 and 2009 programs. This form reflects input from various external sources who are familiar with the program and its procedures. This request for information has taken into consideration input gathered from the 2009 and 2011 programs.

In response to the Federal Register notice (80 FR 47998), dated August 10, 2015, we received 2 sets of comments during the comment period. The comments received were related to the entire OVDP program. Comments related to the tax laws and forms were forwarded to Chief Counsel for consideration and response, if necessary. The comments also challenged and agreed with the burden estimates reported by IRS. In light of the wide range of potential compliance situations, we believe the estimates provided for the forms under the OVDP program are a fair estimate and understand that there may be specific situations that require more time. The comments have been reviewed, considered and will be distributed to the various Business Operating Divisions (BODs) for final determination and implementation, if necessary. See attached document for summary of responses.

IRS will respond to the comments and which suggestions were implemented and which were not at the next renewal.

9. EXPLANATION OF DECISION TO PROVIDE ANY PAYMENT OR GIFT TO RESPONDENTS

No payment or gift has been provided to any respondents.

10. ASSURANCE OF CONFIDENTIALITY OF RESPONSES

Generally, tax returns and tax return information are confidential as required by 26 USC 6103.

11. JUSTIFICATION OF SENSITIVE QUESTIONS

A privacy impact assessment (PIA) has been conducted for information collected under this request as part of the "Business Master File (BMF)" system and a Privacy Act System of Records notice (SORN) has been issued for this system under IRS 24.046-Customer Account Data Engine Business Master File. The Internal Revenue Service PIA's can be found at <http://www.irs.gov/uac/Privacy-Impact-Assessments-PIA>.

Title 26 USC 6109 requires inclusion of identifying numbers in returns, statements, or other documents for securing proper identification of persons required to make such returns, statements, or documents and is the authority for social security numbers (SSNs) in IRS systems.

13. ESTIMATED ANNUAL COST TO RESPONDENTS

To ensure more accuracy and consistency across its information collections, IRS is currently in the process of revising the methodology it uses to estimate burden and costs. Once this methodology is complete, IRS will update this information collection to reflect a more precise estimate of burden and costs. .

14. ESTIMATED ANNUALIZED FEDERAL COST TO FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

To ensure more accuracy and consistency across its information collections, IRS is currently in the process of revising the methodology it uses to estimate burden and costs. Once this methodology is complete, IRS will update this information collection to reflect a more precise estimate of burden and costs.

15. REASONS FOR CHANGE IN BURDEN

The creation of the Offshore Compliance Status Response form will create an increase in the estimated number of responses by 569/year and an estimated burden increase of 1,138 hours/year.

	Requested	Program Change Due to Agency Discretion	Change Due to Adjustment in Agency Estimate	Change Due to Potential Violation of the PRA	Previously Approved
Annual Number of Responses	474,569	569	0	0	474,000
Annual Time Burden (Hr)	758,138	1,138	0	0	757,000

16. PLANS FOR TABULATION, STATISTICAL ANALYSIS AND PUBLICATION

There are no plans for tabulation, statistical analysis, and publication.

17. REASONS WHY DISPLAYING THE OMB EXPIRATION DATE IS INAPPROPRIATE

We believe that displaying the OMB expiration date is inappropriate because it could cause confusion by leading taxpayers to believe that the regulation sunsets as of the expiration date. Taxpayers are not likely to be aware that the Service intends to request renewal of the OMB approval and obtain a new expiration date before the old one expires.

18. EXCEPTION TO THE CERTIFICATION STATEMENT

There are no exceptions to the certification statement.

19. REASON FOR EMERGENCY SUBMISSION

New Form 15023 is part of the Decline and Withdrawal Campaign #208, related to Offshore Voluntary Disclosure Program (OVDP) taxpayers. Failure to collect this information will prevent the IRS from determining accurately the risk of noncompliance and causing public harm by a misallocation of resources for determining compliance. Taxpayers are required to complete and submit this form with their response to Letter 5935. Information in this form will allow the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) to associate any responses accordingly. The purpose of the soft letter is to gather additional, time sensitive information to determine if the risk of noncompliance warrants examination. Significant delays in gathering supplemental information can lead to imminent and barred statutes, hindering IRS from meeting its mission. These associated tax returns are not under examination and preemptively soliciting a statute extensions is not warranted.
