Dear Dr. Macario:

Using a Determination of Research with Human Subjects assessment process, the E&I administrative review team has reviewed your submission. We have determined that your project is not "research". No formal IRB review is required at this time. Please keep this determination document with your project records.

E&I Assigned Study ID:	20146 - 01
Date of Certification:	September 1, 2020

Conditions: There is no expiration date. The determination does not render any opinion about the ethical conduct of the activities. The determination is for the described activities only. If there is a question about the determination, please call.

Please remember to submit any desired modification to your project for further assessment and consideration prior to carrying out such changes.

Thank you for choosing E&I and please feel free to contact us anytime, we are here to help.

Sincerely,

Teresa Majors
