Revisions to the Collection Instrument

- Change #1: We are including a new version of the HA-L90, the HA-L90-OP1 in this information collection request.

  Justification #1: We will use the HA-L90-OP1 when a claimant or their representative requests to establish good cause for rescheduling a redetermination hearing. Our administrative law judges (ALJ) use a different process for redeterminations, in that we can use the evidence on file and the prior determination to make a decision, if the ALJ is not able to establish good cause. Since the HA-L90 does not explain that process fully, and because we have fewer requests to establish good cause for redeterminations, we decided to create the HA-L90-OP1. The HA-L90-OP1 includes information to let the claimant or their representative know that, if the ALJ does not determine good cause for missing the redetermination hearing, the ALJ will make a redetermination decision based on the evidence on file. Other than the inclusion of that information, the HA-L90-OP1 does not differ from the HA-L90.

- Change #2: We are revising the Privacy Act Statement on these forms.

  Justification #2: SSA's Office of the General Counsel is conducting a systematic review of SSA's Privacy Act Statements on agency forms. As a result, SSA is updating the Privacy Act Statement on these forms.
