

Are you a Transfer student or plan to be one?

Earn $75 as Part of a Research Study

Study of Higher Education Articulation Covering the Early Care and Education Workforce

The American Institutes for Research is recruiting students in early childhood education degree programs, who would like to transfer from a two-year college into a four-year college, or who have already transferred. We would like to hear about your experience with credit transfer. This study is being conducted on behalf of the U.S. Department of Education, Policy and Program Studies Service.

Who can join this study? What will I be asked to do?

We are looking for college students who are seeking a career in early childhood education. If you would like to transfer from a two-year college into a four-year college, or have already done so, please join us.

You will take part in an on-line video conversation with other students. The conversation will take about 60 minutes. Each participant will receive a $75 gift card after the session.

Why should I join this study?

The information you share with us could help improve policies related to transfer credits.

How do I join this study?

If you want to join this study, contact the study team members listed below.

The research study is funded by the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Planning, Evaluation and Policy Development (OPEPD). The study is led and carried out by a research team at American Institutes for Research (AIR).
