

Library Reviewers

We are always looking for experts to serve as peer reviewers. If you would like to be considered as a peer reviewer, use this form to add yourself to the system. IMLS may use the information you provide to consider your candidacy for service on a peer review panel, and may also use that information to contact you to request your participation on a peer review panel. Please also see the IMLS Privacy & Terms of Use.

First name

Last name

Job title

Employer

Employer city

Employer state

Work email address

Work phone number (Optional)

Education and Expertise

Highest academic degree

Areas of expertise

Link to professional website or profile (Optional)

Resume or biography (Optional)

Areas of research expertise (Optional)

Qualitative

Quantitative

Mixed

Other

Grant Programs

Select the grant program or programs for which you have relevant expertise and are interested in serving as a peer reviewer.

Laura Bush 21st Century Librarian Program

National Leadership Grants for Libraries

Native American Library Services

Native Hawaiian Library Services

Select the project category or categories for which you have relevant expertise and are interested in serving as a peer reviewer. Category descriptions are available in the most recent Notice of Funding Opportunity for each of the grant programs linked above. (Optional)

Community Anchors

Curating Collections

National Digital Platform

SUBMIT

If you have any questions, please call the IMLS Office of Library Services at (202) 653-4700, or email us at libraryreviewers@imls.gov (link sends e-mail). TTY for hearing impaired: (202) 653-4614.