

FLAS Tracking Survey Public Burden Statement

According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless such collection displays a valid OMB control number, xxxx-xxxx. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 15 minutes per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. The obligation to respond to this collection is voluntary. Send comments regarding the burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to Amy Wilson, U.S. Department of Education, International and Foreign Language Education, 1990 K St., NW, Washington, DC 20006-8521 or email amy.wilson@ed.gov and reference the OMB Control Number xxxx-xxxx. Note: Please do not return the completed FLAS Tracking Survey to this address.

Survey of Post-Graduate Outcomes for International Education Fellowship Recipients Questionnaire

- Skip logic for the purposes of reducing burden is highlighted in red.
- Responses that will be compared with other national surveys are highlighted in blue.
- The IIPP survey will not include questions 2, 3, or 4. These are FLAS-only questions.
- Initial surveys of respondents will include all questions. In subsequent years, the following questions will be pre-populated for respondents that participated in the initial survey: 1-5 (basic award profile), 28 – 31 (demographics), and 32 – 34 (language background).

Introduction

This survey asks about your employment and education after the completion of the [\[insert program name\]](#) fellowship program.

The purpose of the survey is to report to U.S. Department of Education on the impact of this taxpayer-funded program, which will help ensure future students can also benefit from the fellowships. The survey is a legislative requirement of the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008.

Your answers will be provided to the university that awarded your fellowship. They will report fellow responses in the aggregate to U.S. Department of Education. The survey is voluntary and should take approximately fifteen minutes to complete. Thank you for your time.
