Thank you for your interest in the Peace Corps Campus Ambassador program!

Here are a few key points to understand before submitting this application:

- This is an unpaid, two-semester experience, spanning from the Fall 2018 through the Spring 2019 semesters (or the quarters/blocks therein).
- Serving as an Ambassador will not guarantee that you will be accepted as a Peace Corps Volunteer if you later choose to apply.
- Being affiliated with Peace Corps in any way may adversely impact your ability to pursue an internship or career with a U.S. intelligence agency (FBI, CIA, etc). This policy is founded on the premise that it is crucial to the Peace Corps in carrying out its mission that there is a complete and total separation of Peace Corps from the intelligence activities of the United States government, both in reality and appearance.
- This is a peer-to-peer outreach position, so -- among other activities -- you will need to give short presentations about Peace Corps to various student groups on campus.
- In this position, you will work with a Peace Corps Recruiter and will have a variety of duties and deliverables to produce. But it will require a lot of initiative and self-drive, as you will rarely (if ever) see the Recruiter, and you probably won't have a Peace Corps office out of which to work.
- The application deadline is TBD. We anticipate informing all applicants of their status by June.

- Please list all the campus groups and activities are you involved in. Please include any positions you hold in these campus groups or activities.

Experience and Motivation

- Please highlight any experience you have in marketing, outreach and/or event planning.
- List all the social media accounts you have and how often you post on each per week. E.g. For example - Instagram - 5 posts per week; Twitter - 10 tweets per week.
- Share a few words about your interest in international service, such as the work that Peace Corps Volunteers do.
- Who could you collaborate with on campus to get the word out about Peace Corps? E.g. Academic and/or social clubs, partnering with college offices or departments, sports team, etc.
- Service is one of the pillars of the Peace Corps. With that in mind, please list a service project you are currently involved in and/or a service project you plan on participating in next year.
- One of Peace Corps' strategic objectives is to make its volunteer corps reflective of the rich diversity of the United States. As a Campus Ambassador, how would you share Peace Corps with diverse populations on campus? E.g. Our definition of diversity includes racial/ethnic minorities, Sexual Orientation Gender Identity (SOGI), first generation (to college), New Americans (naturalized U.S. citizens), veterans, Older Americans (50+), and Pell Grant-eligible students.
