2015 National Blue Ribbon Schools Program

A National Recognition Program for American Schools

Since 1982, the U.S. Department of Education's National Blue Ribbon Schools Program has honored America's most successful public and non-public elementary, middle, and high schools. A National Blue Ribbon Schools flag waving overhead has become a trademark of excellence, a symbol of quality recognized by everyone from parents to policy-makers in thousands of communities.

The National Blue Ribbon Schools Program recognizes 1) schools whose students achieve at very high levels or 2) schools making significant progress in closing achievement gaps among different groups of students. The Program sets a standard of excellence for all schools striving for the highest level of achievement.

National Blue Ribbon Schools are honored each year at a recognition ceremony in Washington, DC. The applications from the award-winning schools are posted on the Department's website. A small group of National Blue Ribbon Schools are visited each year to identify educational practices that have been especially successful.

Public School Nomination Process

For public schools, the Secretary invites Chief State School Officers (CSSOs), including the District of Columbia (DC), Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands and the Department of Defense Education Activity (DoDEA) and the Bureau of Indian Education (BIE), to nominate schools. In this document, the title CSSO will refer to the chief school officers in the states and in the public education entities named above.

In submitting the list of nominated schools, CSSOs must certify that the schools meet the minimum requirements established by the Department for nomination. As described below, CSSOs must also rely on their own education accountability and assessment systems to identify schools for submission to the Secretary.

At least one-third of the public schools nominated by each state must have enrollments which include at least 40 percent of their students from disadvantaged backgrounds. A student from a "disadvantaged background" is defined by the CSSO of each state. The definition must include low-income students who are eligible for free and reduced-price school meals and may include students with disabilities and students who are limited English proficient, migrant, or receiving services under Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, as amended by the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001.

To be nominated, schools must have at least 100 students enrolled. In addition, nominated schools must have assessment data for at least 10 students in each tested grade for both reading and mathematics. The Department also recommends that nominated schools reflect the demographic and geographic diversity of the state's school-age population.

Test results for grades three and higher during the most recent five years must be reported even if the assessment was revised or changed during that period. NOTE: If your school participated in field testing for the new Common Core assessments AND do not have state criterion-referenced assessment results available for 2013-2014, you may use the 2012-2013 assessment results for your most current year's data. In the rare cases where five years of test results are not available, an explanation should be provided in the school's application.

Each state's nomination criteria must pertain equally to all schools nominated by the state.

All nominated public schools must meet their state's Annual Measurable Objectives (AMOs) in reading (English language arts) and mathematics or make Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) in reading (English language arts) and mathematics in each of the two years prior to nomination (2012-2013 and 2013-2014) and must do the same for the year in which they are nominated (2014-2015).

National Blue Ribbon Schools Public School Performance Award Categories

- 1) Exemplary High Performing Schools: “High performing” is defined by the CSSO of each state, but at a minimum means:
  - (a) The performance of all tested students in the school in the most recent year tested in both reading (English language arts) and mathematics must be in the top 15 percent of all schools in the state when schools are ranked based on the performance of all tested students.
  - (b) For each of the school’s subgroups, the performance of all tested students in the subgroup in the most recent year tested in both reading (English language arts) and mathematics must be in the top 40 percent of all schools in the state when schools are ranked based on the performance of tested students in that subgroup.
  - (c) For the most recent year in which graduation rates are available in the state, the graduation rate of a high school must be in the top 15 percent of all high school graduation rates in the state.

- 2) Exemplary Achievement Gap Closing Schools: “Achievement gap closing” is defined by the CSSO of each state, but at a minimum means:
  - (a) The school must be in the top 15 percent of all schools in the state for both reading (English language arts) and mathematics based on its progress in closing achievement gaps between the school’s subgroups and the state’s all-students group over the past five years, comparing the most recent year to the earliest year.
  - (b) For each of the school’s subgroups, the performance of all tested students in the subgroup in the most recent year tested in both reading (English language arts) and mathematics must be in the top 40 percent of all schools in the state when schools are ranked based on the performance of tested students in that subgroup.
  - (c) For the most recent year in which graduation rates are available in the state, the graduation rate of each of a high school’s subgroups must be in the top 40 percent of all high school graduation rates for that subgroup in the state.
  - (d) The change in the performance of all tested students in the school over the past five years, comparing the most recent year to the earliest year, must not be less than the change in the performance of all tested students in the state in both reading (English language arts) and mathematics.

Once the Secretary receives the nominations from the CSSOs, nominated schools are invited to submit applications for recognition as National Blue Ribbon Schools.

Non-Public School Nomination Process

For non-public schools, the Secretary invites the Council for American Private Education (CAPE) to nominate schools that meet the criteria for recognition. Non-public schools interested in applying for nomination should contact CAPE directly Council for American Private Education. CAPE must ensure and certify that the schools meet the criteria before submitting nominations to the Department.

Non-public schools are eligible for National Blue Ribbon recognition if they meet the following criteria:

- 1) Exemplary High Performing Schools: “High performing” means:
  - (a) that the achievement of the school’s students in the most recent year tested places the school in the top 15 percent in the nation in reading (or English language arts) and mathematics as measured by a nationally normed test or in the top 15 percent of its state as measured by a state test. If a non-public school administers both state test and nationally normed tests, the school must be in the top 15 percent for both tests.
  - (b) Disaggregated results for student groups, including students from disadvantaged backgrounds, must be similar to the results for all students tested.

- (c) For the most recent year in which graduation rates are available, the graduation rate for non-public high schools must be 95% or higher.

A student from a “disadvantaged background” must include a student who is eligible for free and reduced-price school meals. The definition may include students with disabilities and students who are limited English proficient, migrant, or receiving services under Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, as amended by the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001.

Test results for grades three and higher during the most recent five years must be reported even if the assessment was revised or changed during that period. In the rare cases where five years of test results are not available, an explanation should be provided in the school’s application.

For information on the nomination process and timeline for CAPE, non-public schools representatives should consult the CAPE Web site at <www.capenet.org/brs.html>.

Public and Non-Public Nomination Allocations and Eligibility for Public and Non-Public Schools

States and public entities, including DC, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, BIE, and DoDEA, are allocated a number of National Blue Ribbon School nominations based on total K-12 student enrollment and number of public schools. Allocations range from a minimum of 3 schools to a maximum of 35. CAPE may nominate up to 50 non-public schools. A total of 420 public and non-public schools could be nominated each year.

Eligible schools, then, are those submitted by authorized nominators that meet all National Blue Ribbon Schools Program criteria and requirements and have completed a comprehensive, high quality application according to Program timelines.

Application Process for Nominated Schools

Once the Department receives the nominations from the CSSOs and CAPE, the Secretary extends an invitation to the nominated schools to apply.

The nominators are encouraged to contact principals of selected schools prior to nomination to verify principals’ commitment and to review completed applications prior to submission to ensure that recognized schools will be outstanding models of excellence for their states and for the National Blue Ribbon Schools Program. The Secretary reserves the right to initiate site visits to schools to document educational practices as well as to verify the accuracy of data.

PART I – ELIGIBILITY CERTIFICATION

The signatures on the first page of this application (cover page) certify that each of the statements below, concerning the school’s eligibility and compliance with U.S. Department of Education and National Blue Ribbon Schools requirements, are true and correct.

1. The school configuration includes one or more of grades K-12. (Schools on the same campus with one principal, even a K-12 school, must apply as an entire school.)
2. The school has made its Annual Measurable Objectives (AMOs) or Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) each year for the past two years and has not been identified by the state as “persistently dangerous” within the last two years.
3. To meet final eligibility, a public school must meet the state’s AMOs or AYP requirements in the 2014-2015 school year and be certified by the state representative. Any status appeals must be resolved at least two weeks before the awards ceremony for the school to receive the award.
4. If the school includes grades 7 or higher, the school must have foreign language as a part of its curriculum.
5. The school has been in existence for five full years, that is, from at least September 2009 and each tested grade must have been part of the school for the past three years.
6. The nominated school has not received the National Blue Ribbon Schools award in the past five years: 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, or 2014.
7. The nominated school has no history of testing irregularities, nor have charges of irregularities been brought against the school at the time of nomination. The U.S. Department of Education reserves the right to disqualify a school’s application and/or rescind a school’s award if irregularities are later discovered and proven by the state.
8. The nominated school or district is not refusing Office of Civil Rights (OCR) access to information necessary to investigate a civil rights complaint or to conduct a district-wide compliance review.
9. The OCR has not issued a violation letter of findings to the school district concluding that the nominated school or the district as a whole has violated one or more of the civil rights statutes. A violation letter of findings will not be considered outstanding if OCR has accepted a corrective action plan from the district to remedy the violation.
10. The U.S. Department of Justice does not have a pending suit alleging that the nominated school or the school district as a whole has violated one or more of the civil rights statutes or the Constitution’s equal protection clause.
11. There are no findings of violations of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act in a U.S. Department of Education monitoring report that apply to the school or school district in question; or if there are such findings, the state or district has corrected, or agreed to correct, the findings.

PART VIII - ASSESSMENT RESULTS

REPORTING REQUIREMENTS FOR STATE CRITERION-REFERENCED TESTS

Schools must report five years of state assessment results for each grade tested, starting at grade 3, even if the state has revised or changed its assessments during that period. Use the Notes section below each table to explain when the changes took place and what effect the change had on results. If your school participated in field testing for the new Common Core assessments AND do not have state criterion-referenced assessment results available for 2013-2014, you may use the 2012-2013 assessment results for your most current year's data. In the rare cases where five years of test results are not available, use the Notes section to provide an explanation.

For high schools that administer the state assessment in reading/English language arts or mathematics in multiple grades, indicate the highest grade tested and use the Notes section to provide information on the grade levels tested.

Schools must enter numbers and percentages of students who were tested with an alternate assessment. Students who take the state assessment with accommodations prescribed by an Individualized Educational Plan, (e.g. more time for response) are not included in this category. Schools must use the Notes section to provide an explanation if the percentage of students tested within a grade with an alternate assessment is greater than two (2) percent of all students tested within a grade.

While the online tables use the terminology of "Proficient" and "Advanced" to describe student performance levels, schools must enter their state's performance level terminology in the tables when submitting their data. Schools should refer to the terminology their state uses as presented in the box above the assessment table.

Schools must report student assessment results in reading and math in grades 3 and higher for all subgroups only if the subgroup represents at least 10 percent of the school's total enrollment in the current school year. If the subgroup represents at least 10 percent of the school's enrollment in the current year, schools should report that subgroup's data for all five years, regardless of prior enrollment. If the subgroup does not represent 10 percent of the school's total enrollment in the current year, then the school does not have to report on that subgroup at all, regardless of prior enrollment. Refer to Demographic items numbered 5, 7, 8, and 9 in the application for percentages of total current enrollment of potential subgroups.

For public schools: Results must be reported in each grade for each qualifying subgroup regardless of the number of students tested. If it is impossible for an applicant to access results for any qualifying subgroup(s) in any tested grade because the number of students tested is too small, an explanation must be provided in the Notes section below the appropriate table(s) of results.

For non-public schools required to administer state assessments: The school only needs to report assessment results for subgroups if there are at least 10 tested students in the subgroup in a given grade.

If schools receive results from their states for one or more "super" groups instead of one or more "standard" individual subgroups, schools must report these results as "Other." Please specify which subgroups comprise "Other" on the assessment tables. Add additional explanation in the Notes section below the appropriate table(s) of results.

Notes:

REPORTING REQUIREMENTS FOR TESTS REFERENCED BY NATIONAL NORMS

Non-public schools that report norm-referenced test results must report these results in reading (or English language arts) and mathematics for the most recent five years for tested grades 3 and higher. Please see the sample table below. Tables for entering this information will be in the online application.

Nominated schools must report five years of assessment results even if the test was revised or changed during that period. In the rare cases where five years of test results are not available, an explanation should be provided in the school’s application.

Schools must enter numbers and percentages of students tested with an alternate assessment. Schools must use the Notes section to provide an explanation if the percentage of students tested with an alternate assessment is greater than two (2) percent of all students tested within the grade.

Schools must report student assessment results in reading and math in grades 3 and higher for all students and all subgroups only if the subgroup represents at least 10 percent of the school’s total enrollment in the current school year. The school only needs to report assessment results for subgroups if there are at least 10 tested students in the subgroup in a given grade. Refer to Demographic items numbered 5, 7, 8, and 9 in the application for percentages of total current enrollment of potential subgroups.
