Dear :

We have reviewed your record and found that you were paid more in railroad retirement annuities than you were entitled to receive.

Code Paragraphs are Inserted Here

A Payment Summary is enclosed showing the annuities due and annuities paid. All rates shown on this summary include Part B, C and D premiums if they were being deducted from your railroad retirement annuity.

Please read the enclosed Form <Dropdown G-66A/G-66B>, "Your Rights to Review and/or Waiver," which explains your rights concerning this overpayment and the amount of time you have to request your rights.

If you wish to request your rights, complete the enclosed Form G-66BA, "Rights Request Form," and return it in the enclosed envelope.

If you do not wish to request your rights, you must refund the overpaid annuities.

If you do not request your rights or remit full payment within 60 days from the date of this letter, interest shall accrue on the unpaid portion of this debt. In addition, penalty and administrative charges shall accrue on any amounts unpaid after 120 days.

Payment may be made by check, money order, or debit card and should reference the above Billing Document ID. If you pay by check or money order, complete the enclosed Form DR-422B, "Response to Debt Notice," and return it with your payment. Checks and money orders must be drawn on a U.S. bank, in U.S. dollars. If you choose to pay by debit card, complete the enclosed Forms DR-422B and G-421F, "Repayment by Debit Card Form."

If you are unable to make repayment in one lump sum and would like to request installment payments, complete the appropriate section of Form DR-422B. The RRB will consider any reasonable offer, but keep in mind that repayment by installments should satisfy the debt within a reasonable amount of time. If you enter into an installment plan and payments are made in a timely manner, penalty and administrative charges will not be added. However, interest charges would be assessed to the unpaid balance of your debt.

To ensure proper and timely handling, your payment or completed Form G-66BA, should be mailed using the enclosed envelope addressed to the Railroad Retirement Board, Retirement Survivor Debt Collections, P.O. Box 979018, St. Louis, Missouri 63197-9000.

You may also pay this debt online at: <https://secure.rrb.gov/onlinebillpayment>.
