

ATTESTATION

Public burden statement

Attestation helps the NPDB to ensure all registered organizations are meeting their federal NPDB reporting requirements. When an organization completes an attestation, they are agreeing to work with the NPDB to submit all reportable actions within 30 days of the date the action was taken, as required by law.

State licensing or certification agencies (State licensing boards) renew their NPDB registration every two years and attest to their compliance with NPDB reporting requirements.

There are two parts to attestation:

1. Confirm all of the professions your State licensing board regulates.
 - Review the list to ensure it is correct and complete.
 - Add or remove professions from the list if needed.
2. Certify for all health care entities, providers, suppliers and practitioners your board regulates.
 - Your board has submitted all NPDB reports required by law.
 - Your board will continue to report actions to the NPDB according to federal reporting requirements.

Attestation results are posted to the NPDB's public website. Your State licensing board's attestation is due 30 days after its scheduled registration renewal date. If your board fails to complete its attestation by the due date, it may be listed as "Failed to Attest" on the website, indicating that it has not complied with federal reporting requirements.

Before you get started:

- Review all actions taken by your State licensing board from (Month dd, yyyy) to (Month dd, yyyy) for all of the professions it licensed or regulated during that time.
- Determine whether or not your board submitted all required reports for those actions to the NPDB.

ATTESTATION

Attestation helps the NPDB to ensure that health care entities are properly registered. When an organization completes its registration, it must be renewed every 30 days of the date the activity is reported.

Agencies, like state boards, renew their registration by completing the attestation reporting requirements.

There are two parts to attestation:

1. Confirm all of the professions and specialties that are reported by your agency.
 - Review the list to ensure that all professions and specialties are included.
 - Add or remove professions and specialties as needed.
2. Certify for all health care entities that are reported by your agency.
 - Your agency has submitted accurate information.
 - Your agency will continue to report accurate information.

Attestation results are posted to the NPDB's public website. Your agency's attestation is due 30 days after its scheduled registration renewal date. If your agency fails to complete this attestation by the due date, it may be listed

2. Attest to Reporting

The total number of NPDB reports submitted by your State licensing board from (Month dd, yyy) to (Month dd, yyyy) is shown for each profession with a link to the report details. Review all actions taken by your board during that period and determine if the actions were reportable to the NPDB. Each reportable action should match with a submitted NPDB report.

Can you attest that your State licensing board submitted all required NPDB reports from (month dd, yyyy) to (month dd, yyyy) as required by law?

Yes = The board submitted all required NPDB reports for the profession. If no reports are listed, the board did not take any actions that required an NPDB report. The board will continue to submit all reportable actions within 30 days after the action is taken.

No = You cannot confirm that the board submitted all required NPDB reports for the profession.

Select Yes or No for each profession. If you answer "No," you must enter the reason you cannot attest. You can return to this attestation and change it at any time.
