To third party contacts in situations where the party to be contacted has, or is expected to have, information relating to the individual's capability to manage his or her affairs or his or her eligibility for or entitlement to benefits under the Social Security program when the data are needed to establish the validity of evidence or to verify the accuracy of information presented by the individual, and it concerns his or her eligibility for benefits under the Social Security program; and
2. To specified business and other community members and Federal, State, and local agencies for verification of eligibility for benefits under section 1631(e) of the Act.

In addition, we may share this information in accordance with the Privacy Act and other Federal laws. For example, where authorized, we may use and disclose this information in computer matching programs, in which our records are compared with other records to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federal benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect or delinquent debts under these programs.

A list of additional routine uses is available in our Privacy Act System of Records Notices (SORN) 60-0089, entitled Claims Folders System, and 60-0320, entitled Electronic Disability (eDIB) Claim File.
