TITLE OF INFORMATION COLLECTION:

NLM 2018 Exhibition Program Web Portal Usability Study

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this National Library of Medicine (NLM) Exhibition Program study is to obtain qualitative feedback based on user experiences of the Program’s portal website. The findings from the usability test will guide the development of the next online Program portal and identify specific needs of the librarians in searching and booking traveling exhibitions.

DESCRIPTION OF RESPONDENTS:

The Exhibition Program’s portal site consists of three main areas of products and services—online exhibitions, educational resources, and booking traveling exhibitions. These three areas target the following user categories:

- General Public
- Educators
- Traveling Exhibition Host Librarians

The HMD Exhibition Program will recruit and schedule usability sessions with 25 participants as follows:

- 10 general public and educator participants from the United States via a database and through online resources such as listservs and social media.
- 15 librarian participants across United States via the existing customers of the NLM traveling exhibitions.
