

Sources Used in the Development of the Parent and Youth Surveys

National/Regional Surveys:

- National Longitudinal Study of Adolescent to Adult Health (Add Health)
- National Survey of Family Growth (CDC)
- Youth Risk Behavior Survey (CDC)
- Fog Zone (Power to Decide)
- Sex Education in America (National Public Radio, Kaiser Family Foundation, Kennedy School of Government)
- National Survey of Adolescent and Young Adults (Kaiser)
- SexSmart Series of National Surveys of Teens about Sex (Kaiser)
- National Survey of Adolescents and Their Parents (OPRE)
- University of California at San Francisco Student Health Questionnaire
- National Household Education Surveys (IES)
- American Community Survey (Census)
- Americans Speak Out II (Ascend)

Previously used research and evaluation instruments:

- Girls Shape the Future Study
- Personal Responsibility Education Program Multi-Component Evaluation
- The Evaluation of Making Proud Choices
- The Strengthening Relationship Education and Marriage Services Evaluation
- Evaluation of Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention Approaches
- Pregnancy Assistance Fund Study
- Evaluation of Demonstrations to End Childhood Hunger