USCIS Instructions: Please provide a brief overview of the Form to understand the purpose, mission and justification of collecting the requested information. Include the following:

- Description of the purpose of the form
- A brief description of who the form collects information on and how the information is collected
- Description of the information technology used to support this project
- Description of the responsible Program Office
- Description of any authorizing legislation
- Description of how the form relates to the USCIS' mission

Example: The USCIS Genealogy Program provides access to historical immigration and naturalization records of deceased immigrants to family historians and other researchers through two fee-based services:

Request for searches of these databases are used to determine whether any records pertaining to a subject exists, and, if such records exist, to collect record citations (i.e., USCIS file numbers). The fee for an index search is $20.00.
- Record Copy Request: Form G-1041A, Genealogy Records Request is used to obtain copies of USCIS historical records. Researchers with valid record citations, gained through the index search (Form G-1041) or through independent research, may request microfilm and/or paper-based copies of genealogy records. The fee for a record copy request depends on the record type but varies between $20.00 -$35.00.

This form can be filled out and submitted to USCIS by researchers seeking records of their ancestry for genealogical or family history purposes; historians or social scientists seeking historical records of persons that can be identified by name, date of birth and place of birth; or a researcher involved in their location.

This is an update of the previously approved PTA. There is one change since the last PTA; the collection of USCIS online account number.

This form will be used by USCIS in considering appeals of denials or termination of temporary and permanent residence status by legalization applicants and special agricultural workers, under sections 210 and 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act, and related applications for waiver of grounds of inadmissibility.

This form collects information on legalization and special agricultural worker appellants, interpreters, and preparers.

This project continues to use CLAIMS 3 to support this project. This form is stored in the A-file.
The Field Operations Directorate is the business owner for this form. The Administrative Appeals Office is responsible for reviewing and determining whether to grant or deny this benefit request.
USCIS is authorized to collect Form I-694 pursuant to the Immigration and Nationality Act, section 245A(f)(3) and Title 8 Code of Federal Regulations, part 103.3(a)(3) and 103.3(a)(4).

³ When data is sent over the Internet, each unit transmitted includes both header information and the actual data being sent. The header identifies the source and destination of the packet, while the actual data is referred to as the payload. Because header information, or overhead data, is only used in the transmission process, it is stripped from the packet when it reaches its destination. Therefore, the payload is the only data received by the destination system.

DHS Privacy Office Comments: Please describe rationale for privacy compliance determination above.
USCIS is submitting Form I-694 PTA in considering appeals of denials or termination of temporary and permanent residence status by legalization applicants and special agricultural workers. PRIV agrees that Form I-694 is a privacy sensitive system that requires PIA coverage because Form I-694 collects PII from members of the public. Specifically, it collects information on legalization and special agricultural worker appellants, interpreters, and preparers. DHS/USCIS-016(a) CLAIMS 3 provides coverage because it supports and maintains officer casework documentation and tracking for most benefit requests. DHS/USCIS-016(a) covers name, address, telephone number, DOB, SSN, citizenship information, immigration status (which includes the A-number) for the appellant. CLAIMS 3 also provides coverage for name, business, mailing address, email address, phone number of the interpreter and preparer. PRIV finds Form I-694 is covered by the DHS/USCIS/ICE/CBP-001 SORN, which covers maintenance of records collected in the A-File. Form I-694 will be covered by the forthcoming DHS/USCIS-007 SORN, which covers automated processing of immigrant and nonimmigrant benefit petitions and applications.
