

Tell us about your Experiences Using EDGAR, SEC's Online Database

We're asking investors like you about your experiences using the SEC's online database, EDGAR. Your response will help us improve EDGAR so that will be easier to find information about companies and funds.

Thank you for your feedback!

Questions

1. How often do you use EDGAR?

- Daily/more than once a day
- Several times a week
- At least once per month
- Every few months
- Once every six months or less often
- Only used it once
- Never

2. Which best describes your role when using EDGAR?

- individual investor/general public
- financial analyst
- accountant
- researcher/academia
- lawyer
- other

Please describe:

3. In what ways have you used EDGAR? (please check all that apply)

To find a specific filing

What type of filing(s) were you looking for?

To find information about a specific company

What type of information were you looking for?

€ To find information about an investment fund like a mutual fund or ETF

What type of information were you looking for?

€ To find information about a specific transaction

What type of transaction were you looking for?

€ Other reason(s)

What were you looking for?

4. Were you able to find what you were looking for?

5. What one improvement would you suggest for EDGAR?

6. Is there anything else you would like to add?