FOR PRETEST 1 ONLY

[Consent Screen 1]

[DISPLAY]

You are one of about 200 people in the United States who are being asked to take part in a voluntary research survey. The survey will take approximately 20 minutes.

FOR ALL OTHER PRETESTS

[Consent Screen 1]

[DISPLAY]

You are one of about 270 people in the United States who are being asked to take part in a voluntary research survey. In the survey, you will be shown an ad about a new medication and you will be asked your opinion about it. The survey will take approximately 20 minutes.

[Consent Screen 2]

[DISPLAY]

This survey is being conducted by RTI International (RTI), an independent nonprofit research organization, on behalf of a public health agency. RTI is working with Research Now to conduct this survey but is not affiliated with Research Now in any way. If you have questions about this survey, please contact Dr. Linda Squiers, the project director. She can be reached between 9 AM and 5 PM Eastern Standard Time Monday – Friday at 1-800-334-8571 ext. 5129.

Possible Risks or Discomforts

We do not expect that any of the survey questions will make you uncomfortable or upset; however, if they do, you can refuse to answer any question. If you skip a question you can continue with the rest of the survey. You may take a break at any time during the survey and continue the survey when you return.

Benefits

Your responses are very important because they will help researchers understand how people make decisions about medications. There is no direct benefit to you for your participation.

Incentive

In appreciation for your time, you will receive $5.00 in e-Rewards Currency for completing this survey.

Rights as a Participant

If you have any questions about your rights as a participant, you may wish to contact RTI's Office of Research Protection at 1-866-214-2043.

Privacy and Confidentiality

As with other surveys you receive from Research Now, the privacy and confidentiality of your information is of the highest importance, and we are committed to maintaining a secure environment in which you can participate. Your name and your e-mail address will not be shared outside of Research Now unless required by law, and they will not be associated with your answers or used in any report.
