FY 2008 HOUSE MARK

The Committee is concerned about the prevalence of FAS in the U.S. and notes that drinking during pregnancy continues to be the nation's leading known preventable cause of mental retardation and birth defects. The Committee encourages CDC to continue and enhance efforts to prevent, reduce, and diagnose FAS disorders. The Committee requests that CDC submit a progress report within six months on the contributions made to preventing and reducing FAS disorders, and for CDC's future plans, including programmatic and funding priorities. FY 2008 SENATE MARK

The Committee is concerned by the prevalence of fetal alcohol spectrum disorders (FASD) in the United States and notes that drinking during pregnancy is the Nation's leading known preventable cause of mental retardation and birth defects. To publicize and promote awareness of this critical public health information, the Committee has provided sufficient resources to continue these activities. The Committee notes that the National Task Force on Fetal Alcohol Syndrome and Fetal Alcohol Effect is due to expire in October 2007. The Committee requests that the CDC submit a progress report within six months of the Task Force's contributions to preventing and reducing fetal alcohol spectrum disorders. The report should outline future plans for the Task Force, including programmatic and funding priorities. [Page 90-91, Senate Report 110-107]
