

NYCALC Portal Questionnaire

Due to your active involvement in the NYCALC program, we are seeking your input on the soon-to-be developed online resources portal.

Objective: To create an online roundtable platform that will allow stakeholders (Native youth, Native college-age students, Native community mentors, and Federal employees) to share and gather resources, communicate with one another, and ultimately, remain connected throughout the year leading up to and following the annual Native Youth Congress at NCTC.
