

Request for a Hearing on a Decision in Naturalization Proceedings

N-336

You should use Request for a Hearing on a Decision in Naturalization Proceedings (N-336) to request a hearing before an immigration officer on the denial of your Application for Naturalization (N-400).
You should file your request for a hearing (N-336) within 30 calendar days of receiving the denial of your Application for Naturalization (N-400).
USCIS will reject (not accept) a request that is not timely filed. USCIS will not refund the filing fee if Form N-336 is rejected because it was not timely filed. If, however, your request for a hearing is not timely filed, but it meets the requirements for a motion to reopen or motion to reconsider, USCIS will issue a decision in your case.

Before you start your request

Eligibility

You are eligible to submit a request if you believe USCIS incorrectly denied your Application for Naturalization (N-400) and you want to request a hearing with an immigration officer.
Members of the U.S. Armed Forces currently cannot file this request online. If you are a member of the U.S. Armed Forces, you will need to submit the paper version of this form.

Fee

Fee: $700
The filing fee is not refundable, regardless of any action USCIS takes on this request.
You do not need to include a biometric services fee at the time you submit your request. If you are later notified that you must submit biometrics, you will receive a biometric services appointment notice with instructions on how to submit the additional biometric services fee.
If you are applying for a fee waiver, you cannot submit your request online and will need to file a paper form instead.

Submitting online

Submitting your form online is the same as mailing in a completed paper form. They both gather the same information and cost the same.

Documents you may need

Before starting the Request for a Hearing on a Decision in Naturalization Proceedings (N-336), you may want to gather any documents that support your request.
You may submit any additional documents or briefs to support your request for a hearing when you file your request online or you may bring them with you to your hearing.

After you submit your request

Track your case online

After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign into your account often to check on your case status and read any important messages from USCIS.

Respond to requests for evidence

If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account.

USCIS Privacy Act Statement

AUTHORITIES: The information requested on this request, and the associated evidence, is collected under the Immigration and Nationality Act, section 101.

PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this request is to determine if you have established eligibility for the immigration benefit for which you are filing. The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) will use the information you provide to grant or deny the immigration benefit you are seeking.

DISCLOSURE: The information you provide is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information, and any requested evidence, may delay a final decision in your case or result in a denial of your request.

ROUTINE USES: DHS may share the information you provide on this request with other Federal, state, local, and foreign government agencies and authorized organizations. DHS follows approved routine uses described in the associated published system of records notices [DHS/USCIS-007 - Benefits Information System and DHS/USCIS-001 - Alien File, Index and National File Tracking System Records] which you can find at www.dhs.gov/privacy. DHS may also share the information, as appropriate, for law enforcement purposes or in the interest of national security.

Paperwork Reduction Act Burden Disclosure Notice

An agency may not conduct or sponsor information collection, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information, unless it displays a current valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number. The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated at 2 hours and 45 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, gathering the required documentation and information, completing the request, preparing statements, attaching necessary documentation, and submitting the request, and 1 hour and 35 minutes when submitted electronically. The collection of biometrics is estimated to require 1 hour and 10 minutes. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to:

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Regulatory Coordination Division
