What Is the Purpose of Form I-129S?

This petition is for an employer (petitioner) to classify an employee (beneficiary) as an L-1 nonimmigrant intracompany transferee under a blanket L petition (LZ) approval.

Who May File Form I-129S?

Filing Fee. Each petition must be accompanied by the appropriate filing fee. (See the What Is the Filing Fee section of these Instructions.)

Evidence. At the time of filing, you must submit all evidence and supporting documents listed in the What Evidence Must You Submit and/or Specific Instructions sections of these Instructions.

Biometric Services Appointment. USCIS may require that you appear for an interview or provide biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) at any time to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), before making a decision on your application or petition. After USCIS receives your petition and ensures it is complete, we will inform you in writing if you need to attend a biometric services appointment. If an appointment is necessary, the notice will provide you the location of your local or designated USCIS Application Support Center (ASC) and the date and time of your appointment or, if you are currently overseas, instruct you to contact a U.S. Embassy, U.S. Consulate, or USCIS office outside the United States to set up an appointment.

If you are required to provide biometrics, at your appointment you must sign an oath reaffirming that:

1. You provided or authorized all information in the petition;
2. You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your petition; and
3. All of this information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing.

If you fail to attend your biometric services appointment, USCIS may deny your petition.

Copies. You should submit legible photocopies of documents requested, unless the Instructions specifically state that you must submit an original document. USCIS may request an original document at the time of filing or at any time during processing of an application, petition, or request. If USCIS requests an original document from you, it will be returned to you after USCIS determines it no longer needs your original.

NOTE: If you submit original documents when not required or requested by USCIS, your original documents may be immediately destroyed after we receive them.

Translations. If you submit a document with information in a foreign language, you must also submit a full English translation. The translator must sign a certification that the English language translation is complete and accurate, and that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language into English. You must file your petition with the following documents:

1. A copy of the approval notice for the blanket L petition; and
2. A letter from the beneficiary's foreign qualifying employer detailing the beneficiary's dates of employment, job duties, qualifications, and salary. The letter must also show that the beneficiary worked for the employer for at least the required one continuous year out of three years in an executive, managerial, or specialized knowledge professional capacity. ## What Is the Filing Fee?

There is no base filing fee for Form I-129S. However, there are two fees that the petitioner must submit with Form I-129S in certain situations.

Fraud Prevention and Detection Fee

The L-1 Visa Reform Act of 2004 requires a $500 Fraud Prevention and Detection Fee. The petitioner must submit this fee as outlined below.

1. Visa Applications filed with the U.S. Department of State. The Secretary of State will collect the $500 fee from the petitioner through a beneficiary:
  - A. Who applies at a U.S. Embassy or U.S. Consulate for an L-1 visa; and
  - B. On whose behalf the petitioner is seeking L-1 approval based on an approved blanket L petition.
2. Visa-Exempt Petitions filed with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) (USCIS or U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP)). The Secretary of Homeland Security will collect the $500 fee from a petitioner who seeks:
  - A. Initial approval of L-1 classification for a beneficiary; or
  - B. Approval to employ an L-1 nonimmigrant currently working for another petitioner.

Public Law 114-113 Fee

Public Law (Pub. L.) 114-113 requires that the petitioner pay a $4,500 fee for certain L-1 petitions. The law requires a petitioner to pay the fee on or after December 18, 2015, if:

1. The petitioner employs 50 or more individuals in the United States;
2. More than 50 percent of those employees are in H-1B, L-1A, or L-1B nonimmigrant status; and
3. The petition is filed before October 1, 2025.

To determine whether you must pay the Pub. L. 114-113 fee, complete Item Numbers 9. and 10. in Part 1. Information About The Employer (Petitioner) of Form I-129S. A petitioner is required to pay this fee if:

1. The petitioner is required to pay the $500 Fraud Prevention and Detection fee; and
2. The petitioner answered “Yes” in response to both Item Numbers 9. and 10. in Part 1. of Form I-129S.

NOTE: The Fraud Prevention and Detection Fee and Pub. L. 114-113 Fee, when applicable, may not be waived. The petitioner should submit each fee in a separate check or money order to either the Department of State or the Department of Homeland Security, as described in the Fraud Prevention and Detection Fee section above. DO NOT MAIL CASH. You must submit all fees in the exact amounts. The Fraud Prevention and Detection Fee and Pub. L. 114-113 Fee are not refundable, regardless of any action taken on this petition.

Payments by Checks or Money Orders

Use the following guidelines when you prepare your checks or money orders for the Fraud Prevention and Detection Fee and Public L. 114-113 Fee to USCIS:

1. The check or money order must be drawn on a bank or other financial institution located in the United States and must be payable in U.S. currency; and
2. Make the checks or money orders payable to either the Department of State or U.S. Department of Homeland Security, respectively.

NOTE: Spell out U.S. Department of Homeland Security; do not use the initials “USDHS” or “DHS.”

3. If you live outside the United States, contact the nearest U.S. Embassy or U.S. Consulate for instructions on the method of payment.

NOTE: Petitioners filing Form I-129S with CBP or Department of State should contact those agencies directly regarding payment guidelines.

Notice to Those Making Payment by Check. If you send USCIS a check, we will convert it into an electronic funds transfer (EFT). This means we will copy your check and use the account information on it to electronically debit your account for the amount of the check. The debit from your account will usually take 24 hours and your bank will show it on your regular account statement.

You will not receive your original check back. We will destroy your original check, but will keep a copy of it. If USCIS cannot process the EFT for technical reasons, you authorize us to process the copy in place of your original check. If your check is returned as unpayable, we will re-submit the payment to the financial institution one time. If the check is returned as unpayable a second time, we will reject your petition and charge you a returned check fee.

How To Check If the USCIS Fees Are Correct

The Fraud Prevention and Detection Fee and Pub. L. 114-113 Fee are current as of the edition date in the lower left corner of this page. However, because USCIS fees change periodically, you can verify that the fees are correct by following one of the steps below.

1. Visit the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov, select “FORMS,” and check the appropriate fee; or
2. Visit the USCIS Contact Center at www.uscis.gov/contactcenter to get answers to your questions and connect with a live USCIS representative. The USCIS Contact Center provides information in English and Spanish. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) call: 1-800-767-1833.

Where To File?

Please see our website at www.uscis.gov/I-129S or call our National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283 for the most current information about where to file this petition. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) call: 1-800-767-1833.

Beneficiaries Who Must Obtain a Nonimmigrant Visa Overseas. If the beneficiary requires a nonimmigrant visa, he or she should present the completed or previously approved petition at a U.S. Embassy or a U.S. Consulate abroad.

Beneficiaries in the United States Who Choose to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status. If the beneficiary is in the United States and would like to extend or change nonimmigrant status, file this petition at the USCIS service center that approved the blanket L petition along with Form I-129.

Citizens of Canada under NAFTA. Petitioners who seek L-1 classification for citizens of Canada under the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) may also have the beneficiary present Form I-129S to a CBP officer in conjunction with an application for admission. The beneficiary may do this at either:

1. A “Class A” port-of-entry located on the U.S./Canada land border; or
2. A U.S. pre-clearance/pre-flight inspection station in Canada.

Certification Pertaining to the Release of Controlled Technology or Technical Data to Foreign Persons in the United States

U.S. Export Controls on the Release of Controlled Technology or Technical Data to Foreign Persons. The Export Administration Regulations (EAR) (15 CFR Parts 770-774) and the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR) (22 CFR Parts 120-130) require U.S. persons to seek and receive authorization from the U.S. Government before releasing to foreign persons in the United States controlled technology or technical data. Under both the EAR and the ITAR, release of controlled technology or technical data to foreign persons in the United States, even by an employer, is deemed as an export to that person’s country or countries of citizenship or nationality. One implication of this rule is that a U.S. company must seek and receive a license from the U.S. Government before it releases controlled technology or technical data to its nonimmigrant workers employed as L-1 beneficiaries.

Requirement to Certify Compliance with U.S. Export Control Regulations. The U.S. Government requires each company or other entity to certify that it has reviewed the EAR and ITAR and determine whether it will require a U.S. Government export license to release controlled technology or technical data to the beneficiary. If an export license is required, then the company or other entity must further certify that it will not release or otherwise provide access to controlled technology or technical data to the beneficiary until it has received from the U.S. Government the required authorization to do so. The petitioner must indicate whether or not a license is required on Part 6. Certification Regarding the Release of Controlled Technology or Technical Data to Foreign Persons in the United States.

Controlled Technology and Technical Data. The licensing requirements described above will affect only a small percentage of petitioners because most types of technology are not controlled for export or release to foreign persons. The technology and technical data that are, however, controlled for export or release to foreign persons are identified on the EAR's Commerce Control List (CCL) and the ITAR's U.S. Munitions List (USML). The CCL is found at 15 CFR 774, Supp. 1 and www.access.gpo.gov/bis/ear/ear\_data.html#ccl. The USML is at 22 CFR 121.1 and www.pmddtc.state.gov/regulations\_laws/itar.html. The EAR-controlled technology on the CCL generally pertains to that which is for the production, development, or use of what are generally known as "dual-use" items. The ITAR-controlled technical data on the USML generally pertains to that which is directly related to defense articles.

The U.S. Department of Commerce's Bureau of Industry and Security (BIS) administers the CCL and is responsible for issuing licenses for the release to foreign persons of technology controlled under the EAR. The U.S. Department of State's Directorate of Defense Trade Controls (DDTC) administers the USML and is responsible for issuing licenses for the release to foreign persons of technical data controlled under the ITAR. Information about the EAR and how to apply for a license from BIS are at www.bis.doc.gov. Specific information about EAR's requirements pertaining to the release of controlled technology to foreign persons is at www.bis.doc.gov/index.php/policy-guidance/deemed-exports. Information about the ITAR and how to apply for a license from DDTC are at www.pmddtc.state.gov. Specific information about the ITAR's requirements pertaining to the release of controlled technical data is at www.pmddtc.state.gov/faqs/license\_foreignpersons.html.
