Privacy Act Statement

The information on this form is collected pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 3323(b) and 5 CFR 930.201 et seq. This completed form allows us to refer your application to Federal agencies that have SALJ positions where you may want to work. In addition, this record may be used to develop statistics and studies concerning our SALJ Program. Supplying this information is voluntary, but if you do not provide it you may lose job opportunities because we may not be able to properly refer your application.

Public Burden Statement

We estimate the public reporting burden for this collection will vary from 15 to 25 minutes, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering data, and completing and reviewing the information. Send comments regarding the burden estimate or any other aspect of the collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to the U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM), Administrative Law Judge Program Office, ALJ Program Manager, Washington, DC 20415-7900. The OMB number, 3206-0248, is currently valid. OPM may not collect this information and you are not required to respond, unless this number is displayed. Do not send completed application forms to this address.

Reasonable Accommodation

Federal agencies must provide reasonable accommodation to applicants with disabilities where appropriate. Applicants requiring reasonable accommodation for any part of the hiring process should contact the appointing agency directly. Determinations on requests for reasonable accommodation will be made on a case-by-case basis.
