

NOTICE

ALL SEX PARTNERS MUST WASH

TO AVOID SPREADING SHIGELLA

Shigella is bacteria that causes diarrhea, stomach pain, and vomiting. It spreads through oral-fecal contact, or oral contact with a part that's had contact with the butt. It can be serious, but you can protect yourself by washing all of your parts before and after sex.

Learn more about symptoms and how to protect yourself at cdc.gov/shigella

LOGO