

The Observation/Test Track

As for test track/observation time, there is no specific form. The mid-study questionnaires are conducted after each lap and collect input from what occurred during that test track time. We are collecting video the whole time but that is it.