

Pre-Survey Consultation

Pre-Survey consultation does not have a standard questionnaire list. Rather it is used to begin the process of determining the scope and scale of surveys for a particular area, and may vary depending on the region.