Apply for Pension Benefits [700]

PHOENIX STEEL CORP PEN PL PROD & MAIN CLAYMONT

How do I know if I can apply for pension benefits?

You must meet all of the following criteria:

1. You have not yet applied for benefits for this plan.
2. You have received a benefit estimate with an amount for each benefit form based on the date you want benefit payments to start (annuity date), and
3. You are eligible to begin receiving your retirement benefits, under the provisions of your pension plan, within the next 90 days.

If PBGC has approved your annuity start date that has already passed, you cannot apply online. Call 1-800-400-7242 to request a paper application form.

Please select the option below that applies to you:

Yes, I have received a benefit estimate or Optional Benefit Form letter for my annuity start date from PBGC.

What do I need to apply for pension benefits?

Be prepared so you can complete the entire application in one session. You cannot save your application online and for security purposes, your session will time out after 15 minutes of inactivity. This means you will be logged out and have to start over.

Take a minute to make sure:

- Adobe Acrobat is installed on your computer. If not, download it free from the Adobe Web Site.
- Your computer is connected to a working printer.
- Spouse or other beneficiary information is handy (Social Security Number, date of birth, mailing address, and phone number).
- Your financial information for electronic direct deposit of your pension benefits is accurate.
- You can fax or postal mail copies of required proof document(s) necessary to complete your application process (list provided after completing application).
- If you are married, your spouse is able - if required, to sign the completed application in front of a notary.

No, I have not received a benefit estimate or Optional Benefit Form letter for my annuity start date from PBGC.

Step 2. Choose Benefit Form

How do you want to receive your monthly benefit?

This question is complex and could be one of the most important financial decisions you will ever make. Your decision affects the amount of your monthly benefit and how much your beneficiary will receive after your death. Things to think about:

- The best option for you depends on your age, health, and other financial resources, as well as the age, health, and financial needs of anyone for whom you wish to provide a benefit.
- If you are married, you should discuss this choice with your spouse.
- You may also want to discuss this choice with other family members or friends and, possibly, a financial advisor.
- Your plan's automatic benefit form is the benefit form your plan would pay you if you do not make an election. Your automatic benefit form may be the same as one of the PBGC optional benefit forms.

The following information can also assist you in making an informed choice:

- If you are unmarried, you may choose your plan's automatic benefit form for unmarried participants or any of the PBGC optional benefit forms described below. This automatic benefit form in most plans is a straight-life annuity or a certain-and-continuous annuity (C, H-J).
- If you are married, your automatic benefit form is a joint-and-survivor annuity (D-G) with your spouse as beneficiary. You may choose that benefit form or, with your spouse's written consent, you may choose your plan's automatic benefit form for unmarried participants or any of the PBGC optional benefit forms, with your spouse or another person as beneficiary.
- Check the calculations, included in your benefit estimate package, that show the amount of your benefit under the Plan's Automatic Forms (options A and B) and the amount under PBGC's Optional Benefit forms (options C through J).

- Refer to our side-by-side comparison of all benefit forms by example in the Summary of Examples Chart [PDF].
- Read all information carefully as you cannot change your benefit election after PBGC makes the first payment to you.

Need more information for each benefit form?

Select Description to show or hide details that include examples based on a participant named Sam who is applying for a benefit.

- Sam will be age 65 when his benefit payments begin.
- He is married to Carol, who will be 61 years old when Sam's benefit payments begin.
- We show what Sam and Carol would receive under each benefit form, assuming Sam names Carol as his beneficiary.

Select the button next to benefit form you choose to elect.

Benefit Election Forms

A. Plan's Automatic Form for Unmarried participant Description

You may elect this automatic benefit or choose PBGC optional benefits forms C-J. The automatic benefit form in most plans is a straight-life annuity or a certain-and-continuous annuity.

- If you are married:
 - Your spouse has a legal right to the survivor benefit under your pension plan's automatic benefit form for married participants.
 - You can elect this benefit form or name a beneficiary other than your spouse only if your spouse consents by signing Section 4 of this application before a Notary Public.
 - What does it look like? View the Spousal Consent Example [PDF].
 - How do I get it? Your completed application, which includes section 4, will be available to print and save after you submit it online.

B. Plan's Automatic Form for Married participant Description

You may elect this automatic benefit with your spouse as beneficiary. Your spouse has a legal right to the survivor benefit under your pension plan's automatic benefit form for married participants. You may elect option (A) or any of the PBGC optional benefit forms (C-J) with your spouse or another person as beneficiary only if:

- Your spouse consents by signing Section 4 of this application before a Notary Public.
 - What does it look like? View the Spousal Consent Example [PDF].
 - How do I get it? Your completed application, which includes section 4, will be available to print and save after you submit it online.

C. Straight Life Annuity Description

A straight-life annuity provides a fixed monthly benefit for the rest of your life only. No survivor benefit will be paid upon your death.

EXAMPLE: Sam elects a straight-life annuity, and he receives $500 a month for the rest of his life. After Sam dies, Carol does not receive any benefits.

D. Joint-and-50% Survivor Annuity Description

A joint-and-survivor annuity provides a benefit for the rest of your life at an amount reduced from the straight-life annuity amount with 50% of that reduced amount to be paid to your beneficiary if you die before that person. If your beneficiary dies before you, your benefit will remain at the reduced level, and no survivor benefits will be payable when you die.

- The amount of your benefit will depend on the age of your beneficiary.
- You cannot change your beneficiary after PBGC makes your first payment.
- You may choose your spouse or someone else to be your beneficiary.
- If you are married:
 - Your spouse has a legal right to the survivor benefit under your pension plan's automatic benefit form for married participants.
 - You can elect this benefit form or name a beneficiary other than your spouse only if your spouse consents by signing Section 4 of this application before a Notary Public.
 - What does it look like? [View the Spousal Consent Example \[PDF\]](#).
 - How do I get it? Your completed application, which includes section 4, will be available to print and save after you submit it online.

EXAMPLE: Sam receives $450 a month for the rest of his life. If Sam dies first, Carol receives $225 a month for the rest of her life. If Carol dies first, Sam continues to receive $450 a month for the rest of his life.

E. Joint-and-75% Survivor Annuity Description

A joint-and-survivor annuity provides a benefit for the rest of your life at an amount reduced from the straight-life annuity amount with 75% of that reduced amount to be paid to your beneficiary if you die before that person. If your beneficiary dies before you, your benefit will remain at the reduced level, and no survivor benefits will be payable when you die.

- The amount of your benefit will depend on the age of your beneficiary.
- You cannot change your beneficiary after PBGC makes your first payment.
- You may choose your spouse or someone else to be your beneficiary.
- If you are married:
 - Your spouse has a legal right to the survivor benefit under your pension plan's automatic benefit form for married participants.
 - You can elect this benefit form or name a beneficiary other than your spouse only if your spouse consents by signing Section 4 of this application before a Notary Public.
 - What does it look like? [View the Spousal Consent Example \[PDF\]](#).
 - How do I get it? Your completed application, which includes section 4, will be available to print and save after you submit it online.

EXAMPLE: Sam receives $429 a month for the rest of his life. If Sam dies first, Carol receives $322 a month for the rest of her life. If Carol dies first, Sam continues to receive $429 a month for the rest of his life.

F. Joint-and-100% Survivor Annuity Description

A joint-and-survivor annuity provides a benefit for the rest of your life at an amount reduced from the straight-life annuity amount with 100% of that reduced amount to be paid to your beneficiary if you die before that person. If your beneficiary dies before you, your benefit will remain at the reduced level, and no survivor benefits will be payable when you die.

- The amount of your benefit will depend on the age of your beneficiary.
- You cannot change your beneficiary after PBGC makes your first payment.
- You may choose your spouse or someone else to be your beneficiary.
- If you are married:
 - Your spouse has a legal right to the survivor benefit under your pension plan's automatic benefit form for married participants.
 - You can elect this benefit form or name a beneficiary other than your spouse only if your spouse consents by signing Section 4 of this application before a Notary Public.
 - What does it look like? [View the Spousal Consent Example \[PDF\]](#).
 - How do I get it? Your completed application, which includes section 4, will be available to print and save after you submit it online.

EXAMPLE: Sam receives $409 a month for the rest of his life. If Sam dies first, Carol receives $409 a month for the rest of her life. If Carol dies first, Sam continues to receive $409 a month for the rest of his life.

G. Joint-and-50% Survivor "Pop-up" Annuity Description

The "pop-up" annuity is the same as the joint-and-50% survivor annuity (D) except that if your beneficiary dies before you, your benefit "pops up" to the straight-life annuity amount.

- The amount of your benefit will depend on the age of your beneficiary.
- You cannot change your beneficiary after PBGC makes your first payment.
- You may choose your spouse or someone else to be your beneficiary.
- If you are married:
 - Your spouse has a legal right to the survivor benefit under your pension plan's automatic benefit form for married participants.
 - You can elect this benefit form or name a beneficiary other than your spouse only if your spouse consents by signing Section 4 of this application before a Notary Public.

EXAMPLE: Sam elects a joint-and-50% survivor "pop-up" annuity and receives a payment of $444 a month. If Sam dies first, Carol receives $222 a month for the rest of her life. However, if Carol dies first, Sam's benefit "pops up" to his straight-life annuity benefit amount of $500 a month for the rest of his life.

H. 5-year Certain-and-Continuous Annuity Description

H. 5-year Certain-and-Continuous Annuity Description

A 5-year certain-and-continuous annuity provides a benefit for the rest of your life at an amount reduced from the straight-life annuity amount. If you die within five years after your benefit payments start, your designated beneficiary will receive the benefit for the remainder of that "certain" period. If you die after the certain period, no survivor benefit is payable.

- The amount of your benefit is the same regardless of whom you designate as beneficiary.
- You can change this beneficiary at any time.
- If your beneficiary dies before you and before the end of the certain period, you should designate a new beneficiary.
- You may choose any beneficiary such as your spouse, another person, an estate, a trust, a church or other organization, etc.
- If you are married:
 - Your spouse has a legal right to the survivor benefit under your pension plan's automatic benefit form for married participants.
 - You can elect this benefit form or name a beneficiary other than your spouse only if your spouse consents by signing Section 4 of this application before a Notary Public.

If you die within ten years after your benefit payments start, your designated beneficiary will receive the benefit for the remainder of that "certain" period. If you die after the certain period, no survivor benefit is payable.

- The amount of your benefit is the same regardless of whom you designate as beneficiary.
- You can change this beneficiary at any time.
- If your beneficiary dies before you and before the end of the certain period, you should designate a new beneficiary.
- You may choose any beneficiary such as your spouse, another person, an estate, a trust, a church or other organization, etc.

 - What does it look like? View the Spousal Consent Example [PDF].
 - How do I get it? Your completed application, which includes section 4, will be available to print and save after you submit it online.

EXAMPLE: Sam receives $477 for the rest of his life. If Sam dies within ten years, Carol receives $477 a month for the remainder of the ten-year period. If Sam dies after ten years, Carol does not receive any benefits.

If you die after the certain period, no survivor benefit is payable.

- The amount of your benefit is the same regardless of whom you designate as beneficiary.
- You can change this beneficiary at any time.
- If your beneficiary dies before you and before the end of the certain period, you should designate a new beneficiary.
- You may choose any beneficiary such as your spouse, another person, an estate, a trust, a church or other organization, etc.
- If you are married:
 - Your spouse has a legal right to the survivor benefit under your pension plan's automatic benefit form for married participants.
 - You can elect this benefit form or name a beneficiary other than your spouse only if your spouse consents by signing Section 4 of this application before a Notary Public.
 - What does it look like? View the Spousal Consent Example [PDF].
 - How do I get it? Your completed application, which includes section 4, will be available to print and save after you submit it online.

EXAMPLE: Sam receives $452 a month for the rest of his life. If Sam dies within 15 years, Carol receives $452 a month for the remainder of the 15-year period. If Sam dies after 15 years, Carol does not receive any benefits.

Step 3. Name Your Beneficiary

You may choose a person or entity (such as a trust, church, estate or other organization) as your beneficiary. If you choose to name a person and they die before you, PBGC will pay the amount we owe you in this order: your spouse, your children, your parents, your estate, and your next of kin.

Beneficiary for Payments Owed at Death

PBGC may owe you payments at the time of your death. Generally, this will happen if your estimated benefit is too low. If your benefit will continue to be paid to another person after your death (as with a joint-and-survivor or certain-and-continuous annuity), the person receiving those continuing benefits will also receive any payments due to you at the time of your death. If there are no continuing benefits, PBGC will make any payments due to you at the time of your death to the person you designate in this section. If the beneficiary you name dies before you, PBGC will pay the amount we owe you in this order: your spouse, your children, your parents, your estate, and your next of kin.

Step 4. Specify Tax Withholding

In general, tax laws require PBGC to withhold federal income tax from your pension payments, unless you specifically elect not to have taxes withheld.

Please read all options carefully and make your selection by choosing one option - A, B, or C. If you live outside the United States, you cannot choose Option A. You may change your option at any time online by selecting "Specify Tax Withholdings" under "My Plan Options".

When determining your federal tax withholding, you may find it helpful to read the IRS instructions for completing the IRS Form W-4P (Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments). You can print a copy from the IRS website, www.irs.gov, under "Forms and Pubs". Or, call our Customer Contact Center and we will send you a copy.

If you live outside the United States, you may be eligible for special tax treatment under a tax treaty with the country where you reside. If applicable, we will send you additional information after submission.

A I elect not to have federal income tax withheld. (Available to U.S. residents only)

B I elect to have federal income tax withheld based on IRS instructions.

C I elect to have the following dollar amount of tax withheld for federal income tax.

PBGC makes payments by way of Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) either by Electronic Direct Deposit (EDD) or an Electronic Transfer Account (ETA), described below. EFT is safe, secure and convenient. You will get your payment on time even if you are out-of-town or unable to get to the bank.

If you do not have a bank account, you can open a low-cost Electronic Transfer Account (ETA) at a financial institution that offers such accounts. For more information about opening an ETA, call 1-888-382-3311 (toll-free) or visit the ETA website at www.eta-find.gov.

Note: PBGC does not process EFT for financial institutions outside of the United States and its territories. If you live outside of the United States or its territories, PBGC will send your payment to your mailing address unless you have a bank account in the United States or its territories and provide the information below.

Apply for Pension Benefits [705]

Text Size: A A A

How do I know if I can apply for pension benefits?

You must meet all of the following criteria:

1. You have not yet applied for benefits for this plan.
2. You have received a benefit estimate with an amount for each benefit form based on the date you want benefit payments to start (annuity date), and
3. You are eligible to begin receiving your retirement benefits, under the provisions of your pension plan, within the next 90 days.

If PBGC has approved your annuity start date that has already passed, you cannot apply online. Call 1-800-400-7242 to request a paper application form.

Please select the option below that applies to you:

Yes, I have received a benefit estimate or Optional Benefit Form letter for my annuity start date from PBGC.

What do I need to apply for pension benefits?

Be prepared so you can complete the entire application in one session. You cannot save your application online and for security purposes, your session will time out after 15 minutes of inactivity. This means you will be logged out and have to start over.

Take a minute to make sure:

- Adobe Acrobat is installed on your computer. If not, download it free from the Adobe Web Site.
- Your computer is connected to a working printer.
- Spouse or other beneficiary information is handy (Social Security Number, date of birth, mailing address, and phone number).
- Your financial information for electronic direct deposit of your pension benefits is accurate.
- You can fax or postal mail copies of required proof document(s) necessary to complete your application process (list provided after completing application).
- If you are married, your spouse is able - if required, to sign the completed application in front of a notary.

No, I have not received a benefit estimate or Optional Benefit Form letter for my annuity start date from PBGC.

You may choose a person or entity (such as a trust, church, estate or other organization) as your beneficiary. If you choose to name a person and they die before you, PBGC will pay the amount we owe you in this order: your spouse, your children, your parents, your estate, and your next of kin.

Name Your Beneficiary

PBGC may owe you payments at the time of your death. Generally, this will happen if your estimated benefit is too low. If your benefit will continue to be paid to another person after your death (as with a joint-and-survivor or certain-and-continuous annuity), the person receiving those continuing benefits will also receive any payments due to you at the time of your death. If there are no continuing benefits, PBGC will make any payments due to you at the time of your death to the person you designate in this section. If the beneficiary you name dies before you, PBGC will pay the amount we owe you in this order: your spouse, your children, your parents, your estate, and your next of kin.

Step 4. Specify Tax Withholding

In general, tax laws require PBGC to withhold federal income tax from your pension payments, unless you specifically elect not to have taxes withheld.

Please read all options carefully and make your selection by choosing one option - A, B, or C. If you live outside the United States, you cannot choose Option A. You may change your option at any time online by selecting "Specify Tax Withholdings" under "My Plan Options".

When determining your federal tax withholding, you may find it helpful to read the IRS instructions for completing the IRS Form W-4P (Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments). You can print a copy from the IRS website, www.irs.gov, under "Forms and Pubs". Or, call our Customer Contact Center and we will send you a copy.

If you live outside the United States, you may be eligible for special tax treatment under a tax treaty with the country where you reside. If applicable, we will send you additional information after submission.

A I elect not to have federal income tax withheld. (Available to U.S. residents only)

B I elect to have federal income tax withheld based on IRS instructions.

C I elect to have the following dollar amount of tax withheld for federal income tax.

PBGC makes payments by way of Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) either by Electronic Direct Deposit (EDD) or an Electronic Transfer Account (ETA), described below. EFT is safe, secure and convenient. You will get your payment on time even if you are out-of-town or unable to get to the bank.

If you do not have a bank account, you can open a low-cost Electronic Transfer Account (ETA) at a financial institution that offers such accounts. For more information about opening an ETA, call 1-888-382-3311 (toll-free) or visit the ETA website at www.eta-find.gov ^{td}.

Note: PBGC does not process EFT for financial institutions outside of the United States and its territories. If you live outside of the United States or its territories, PBGC will send your payment to your mailing address unless you have a bank account in the United States or its territories and provide the information below.

Name Your Beneficiary

PHOENIX STEEL CORPORATION SALARIED

Why do I need to designate a beneficiary?

PBGC may owe you money at the time of your death. Typically, this happens if your final benefit is higher than the estimated benefit we had been paying. If another person continues to receive your benefit after your death (as with a joint-and-survivor or certain-and-continuous annuity), PBGC will pay any money owed to that person. If there are no continuing benefits or the person designated to receive continuing benefits dies before you, PBGC will pay any money owed you at the time of your death to the person(s) and/or entity(ies) (such as a trust, church, estate or other organization) that you designate in this section. If you do not make a designation, or if the beneficiary is a person and dies before you, PBGC will pay the money in this order to: your spouse, your children, your parents, your estate, or your next of kin.

Don't remember if you have named a beneficiary? Send us an email at MyPension@pbgc.gov, and ask us to look it up. Please include your full name, PBGC case number, last four digits of your Social Security Number, and a phone number where we can reach you. Or call us at 1-800-400-7242, Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m.-7:00 p.m. ET.

I name the following as my beneficiary(ies). This designation replaces any previous designation and will be effective only when PBGC receives it.

Name Your Beneficiary

Text Size: A A A

Why do I need to designate a beneficiary?

If you are receiving a Certain & Continuous annuity, you may change your beneficiary(ies). If you die before the certain period ends, any remaining payments will go to the person(s) or entity(ies) (such as a trust, church, estate or other organization) that you designate. If you do not make a designation, or if the beneficiary is a person and dies before you, PBGC will pay the amount we owe in this order to: your spouse, your children, your parents, your estate, or your next of kin.

Don't remember if you have named a beneficiary? Send us an email at MyPension@pbgc.gov, and ask us to look it up. Please include your full name, PBGC case number, last four digits of your Social Security Number, and a phone number where we can reach you. Or call us at 1-800-400-7242, Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m.-7:00 p.m. ET.
