

We are planning the 2020 NASA STEM Summit. It will be a full-day, immersive and engaging virtual experience on December 2, 2020. We are excited to broadly extend an invitation to participate in the summit to all NASA civil servant and contractor personnel who have a vested interest in engaging students in NASA's mission. We would love for you to participate! Please mark your calendars for the NASA OSTEM virtual summit on December 2, 2020 (10:00 am – 6:00 pm Eastern).

As we finalize our preparations for the event, we are looking for your comments and suggestions now, so the content of the summit is most useful to you and your team. We are planning separate tracks for different types of attendees whose work supports student engagement in NASA's mission, across the various grade levels (K-Graduate). The summit is designed to facilitate networking with like-minded professionals, encourage the exchange information with keynote experts and provide opportunities to learn about promising practices across the agency through concurrent breakout sessions.

The information provided below will assist in the planning and enable pre-event communication. All registered attendees will receive login information via email. We will also provide you with a participant guide that will afford greater detail on what to expect in terms of logistics, keynotes, discussion groups, professional development, and networking opportunities.

This information collection meets the requirements of 44 U.S.C 3507, as amended by section 2 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. The OMB control number for this information collection is 2700-0153 and it expires on September 30, 2021. We estimate this survey will take 5 minutes. You may send comments on our time estimate to <mailto:hq-stem-engagement@mail.nasa.gov>.
