-The response should identify the Aapplicant's primary home country supervisor and the major laws governing the Aapplicant's operations and activities. The description also should include a discussion of each of the following:

- a. The scope and frequency of on-site examinations by the home country supervisors: Describe the scope and frequency of onsite examinations, identifying the operational areas reviewed and the general procedures used by the home country supervisor to evaluate asset quality and internal controls. Also, discuss the manner in which the home country supervisor monitors the condition and operations of the Aapplicant's subsidiaries and foreign offices.
- b. Off-site monitoring by the home country supervisor: Discuss the general type and frequency of filing of regulatory and financial reports submitted by the Aapplicant to the home country supervisor. Specify whether the reports contain information on the domestic and foreign subsidiaries of the Aapplicant and, if so, whether this information is provided on a consolidated basis or for each entity separately.
- c. The role of external auditors. Discuss the general frequency, nature, and scope of review of the Aapplicant (including subsidiaries and foreign offices) performed by external auditors, particularly with respect to the review of asset quality and internal controls. Discuss whether the home country supervisor sets standards for such reviews and the manner (if at all) by which the external audit results are communicated to the home country supervisor. Include a brief discussion of the general standards or requirements that apply to the external auditors themselves.
- d. Transactions with Aaffiliates. Indicate whether (and, if so, discuss how) the home country supervisor regulates and monitors the Aapplicant's transactions with its affiliates (e.g., through reporting requirements, lending limits, or other restrictions). Define the home country's definition of "affiliate" for this purpose (if different from the Federal Reserve's definition¹¹), and specify whether any such restrictions apply to "upstream," "downstream," or "sister" affiliates.
- e. Other aApplicable Pprudential Rrequirements: To the extent not previously addressed, describe any prudential limitations (e.g., with respect to capital adequacy, asset classification and provisioning, single or aggregate credit and foreign currency exposure limits, and liquidity) that are imposed on the operations of the Aapplicant. Describe the methods used by the home country supervisor to monitor compliance with these limitations.
- f. Remedial aAuthority of the Hhome Country Ssupervisor: Describe the general methods available to the home country supervisor to enforce the Aapplicant's compliance with prudential controls and other supervisory or regulatory requirements.
- g. Prior approval requirements: Indicate whether prior approval of the home country supervisor is needed for the Aapplicant to make investments in other companies, or generally to establish overseas offices. Indicate the type of information the home country supervisor reviews in making its determination.
- 2. For a foreign organization that has previously been approved to acquire a U.S. bank or to establish a U.S. branch or agency:

¹⁰ If the Federal Reserve has previously determined that another bank or a bank holding company from the Aapplicant's home country is subject to comprehensive consolidated supervision, the Aapplicant may request a copy of the previous application from the Federal Reserve under the FOIAreedom of Information Act. After reviewing the record in the previous application, the Aapplicant may make a statement that if such is the case, it is subject to the same supervisory regime as the foreign bank previously considered by the Federal Reserve, rather than responding to each subpart of this Item. In addition, the Aapplicant should confirm that there have been no material changes in the manner in which the Aapplicant is supervised and regulated by its home country supervisor(s) since that previous application or, if material changes have occurred, the Aapplicant should describe such changes.

¹¹ -An "affiliate" of a foreign bank or of a parent of a foreign bank is any company that controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the foreign bank or the parent of the foreign bank.
