30 CFR Parts 1227, 1228, and 1229, Delegated and Cooperative Activities with States and Tribes

OMB Control Number 1012-0003

Terms of Clearance: None.

General Instructions

A completed Supporting Statement A must accompany each request for approval of a collection of information. The Supporting Statement must be prepared in the format described below, and must contain the information specified below. If an item is not applicable, provide a brief explanation. When the question “Does this ICR contain surveys, censuses, or employ statistical methods?” is checked “Yes,” then a Supporting Statement B must be completed. OMB reserves the right to require the submission of additional information with respect to any request for approval.

Specific Instructions

Justification

- 1. Explain the circumstances that make the collection of information necessary. Identify any legal or administrative requirements that necessitate the collection.

The Office of Natural Resources Revenue (ONRR) is required by law to collect information from the States and Tribes that are interested in delegations from ONRR of mineral revenue management responsibilities. The circumstances are necessary because the Secretary of the U.S. Department of the Interior is responsible for mineral resource development on Federal and Indian lands and the Outer Continental Shelf (OCS). Under the Mineral Leasing Act of 1920, Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act of 1953 (OCS Lands Act), Geothermal Steam Act of 1970, and Indian Mineral Development Act of 1982, the Secretary is required to manage mineral resource production on Federal and Indian lands, collect the royalties and other mineral revenues due, and distribute the funds collected in accordance with applicable laws.

The Secretary also has a trust responsibility to manage Indian lands and seek advice and information from Indian beneficiaries. ONRR performs the mineral revenue management functions and assists the Secretary in carrying out the Department’s trust responsibility for Indian lands. One such function is to distribute mineral revenues to the Tribes (and States) from where the mineral resources were produced. As a result, the States, Tribes, and ONRR all have an interest in ensuring the mineral resources revenue are properly collected, accounted for, and verified.

When a company or an individual enters into a lease to explore, develop, produce, and dispose of minerals from Federal or Indian lands, that company or individual agrees to pay the lessor a share (royalty) of the value received from production on leased lands. The lease creates a business relationship between the lessor and the lessee. The lessee is required to report various kinds of information to the lessor, relative to the disposition of the leased minerals. Such information is similar to data reported to private and public mineral interest owners and is generally available within the records of the lessee or others involved in developing, transporting, processing, purchasing, or selling of such minerals. The information that ONRR collects includes data necessary to ensure that the lessee accurately values and appropriately pays all royalties and other mineral revenues due.

The Federal Oil and Gas Royalty Management Act of 1982 (FOGRMA), as amended by sections 3, 4, and 8 of the Federal Oil and Gas Royalty Simplification and Fairness Act of 1996 (RSFA), for Federal lands, authorizes the Secretary to develop delegated and cooperative agreements with States (sect. 205) and Tribes (sect. 202) to conduct certain inspections, audits, investigations, or limited enforcement activities for oil and gas leases within their respective boundaries. The States and Tribes are working partners and are an integral part of the overall onshore and offshore compliance effort. The Appropriations Act of 1992 also authorizes the States and Tribes to perform the same functions for coal and other solid mineral leases.

Relevant parts of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) include 30 CFR parts 1227, 1228, and 1229, as described below.

Title 30 CFR Part 1227—Delegation to States, provides procedures to delegate certain Federal minerals revenue management functions to States for Federal oil and gas leases. This regulation also provides only audit and investigation functions to States for Federal geothermal and solid mineral leases, and leases subject to 8(g) of the OCS Lands Act, within their State boundaries.

Title 30 CFR Part 1228—Cooperative Activities with States and Indian Tribes, provides procedures to utilize the capabilities of the Tribes to carry out audits and related investigations of their respective leased lands.

Title 30 CFR Part 1229—Delegation to States, provides procedures to utilize the capabilities of the States to carry out audits and related investigations of leased Indian lands within their respective State boundaries, by permission of the respective Indian Tribal councils or individual Indian mineral owners.

2. Indicate how, by whom, and for what purpose the information is to be used. Except for a new collection, indicate the actual use the agency has made of the information received from the current collection. Be specific. If this collection is a form or a questionnaire, every question needs to be justified.

30 CFR Part 1227—Delegation to States

The States audit Federal lands under provisions of 30 CFR part 1227 and 30 U.S.C. § 1735. The provisions of 30 U.S.C. § 1735 is the codified version of Section 205 of FOGRMA, as amended by RSFA section 3. It authorizes the Secretary to delegate to States all or part of authorities and responsibilities of the Secretary, to conduct inspections, audits, investigations, and limited enforcement activities for Federal leases within their respective State boundaries. Specifically, 30 U.S.C. § 1735(a) authorizes the Secretary to delegate to States all or part of the Secretary's responsibilities, with respect to all Federal land within a State, to:

1. Conduct inspections, audits, and investigations;
2. Receive and process production and financial reports;
3. Correct erroneous report data;
4. Perform automated verification; and
5. Issue demands, subpoenas (except for solid mineral and geothermal leases), and orders to perform restructured accounting.

Under FOGRMA

Nine States currently have ONRR-approved delegation agreements to perform audits and investigations. The States perform nearly all audits and compliance reviews on Federal leases within their boundaries and receive 50 percent of the revenues from those leases. However, Alaska receives 90 percent of the revenues from Federal leases within their State boundaries. Many States gain efficiencies by performing audits on State severance taxes concurrently on properties that have both Federal and State interests. Federal royalties are a significant portion of many States' annual budgets.

Under RSFA

To be considered for delegation under 30 CFR part 1227, States must submit a written delegation proposal to, and receive approval from, the ONRR Director. Delegation agreements benefit both ONRR and States by ensuring that Federal royalty payments are in compliance with applicable laws, lease terms, and regulations.

When a State performs any of the delegated functions under 30 CFR part 1227, the State also assumes the burden of providing various types of information to ONRR. Under RSFA, ONRR must collect pertinent information from industry and States to properly administer the delegation of the functions to the requesting States and to ensure that this program continues to operate efficiently and effectively.

Currently, companies submit all production and royalty reports and payments, under OMB Control No. 1012-0004, to ONRR. We disburse the funds to States, Tribes, individual Indian mineral owners, the U.S. Treasury, and other Federal agencies. If States choose to participate in the delegable function of receiving and processing royalty and production reports, payors/reporters must send these reports to each participating State for the Federal leases within that State and to ONRR for the remaining Federal leases. The States must verify the accuracy of these reports.

ONRR currently handles production and royalty reporting, error correction, end-to-end compliance review process, and issuance of demand letters and billing actions. ONRR is accountable to certain measurements and standards and must file reports to outside entities. States choosing to participate in any delegable function must adhere to these same measurements and standards. Those States must provide data to document the work that they perform. They must submit an annual work plan and budget, as well as quarterly reimbursement vouchers. States must comply with standards, as required under 30 CFR part 1227.

30 CFR Part 1228—Cooperative Activities with State and Tribes

Under FOGRMA section 202, Cooperative Agreements, as amended by RSFA section 8, the Secretary has the authority to enter into cooperative agreements with any State or Tribe to manage Indian lands upon their written request. ONRR shares oil or gas revenue management information and uses the capabilities of States and Tribes to carry out inspection, auditing, investigation, or limited enforcement activities for Tribal leases.

States

A State must receive written permission from the respective Tribe(s) or individual Indian mineral owner(s) to carry out the above functions. There are no States with cooperative agreements, as no State has proposed to enter into a cooperative agreement to undertake activities on Indian lands within its boundaries.

Tribes

To be considered for a cooperative agreement, Tribes must comply with the regulations at this CFR part. Tribes submit a written proposal to enter into a cooperative agreement, signed by the Tribal chairman or other appropriate official. In their request, Tribes should outline their proposed activities and responsibilities and present evidence that they can meet the standards that the Secretary established. The ONRR Director must approve the Tribe's proposal prior to beginning work. Currently, six Tribes have cooperative agreements to perform audits and investigations. After ONRR approves the request and places the cooperative agreement in effect, Tribes must submit an annual work plan and budget, as well as quarterly reimbursement vouchers. They must generally follow ONRR standards.

When the Tribes perform any of the cooperative activities under this CFR part, they also assume the burden of providing various types of information to ONRR. These cooperative activities benefit both ONRR and the Tribes by ensuring that royalty payments for Indian leases are in compliance with applicable laws, lease terms, and regulations. Tribes and ONRR currently manage audits for 85 percent of all Tribal mineral royalties through six cooperative agreements.

30 CFR Part 1229—Delegation to States

With the Secretary's approval, a State may conduct audits and related investigations of oil and gas payments made to ONRR regarding leased Indian lands within the State's boundaries. A State must receive written permission from the respective Tribe(s) or individual Indian mineral owner(s). After the State receives approval from the Secretary, the Governor or other authorized official of the State also may petition the Secretary to assume responsibilities of conducting audits and related investigations of Indian oil and gas leases. A State petitioning for a delegation of authority will have the opportunity to present testimony at a public hearing within the State.

After the State receives approval, it must submit annual audit work plans detailing its audits and related investigations, annual budgets, and quarterly reimbursement vouchers. The State must maintain books and records and provide a quarterly summary of costs following Department standards, as required under 30 CFR 1229.109. However, under this part, no State has proposed to undertake delegated functions on Indian lands within its boundaries.

In addition, 30 CFR 1229.101(b), covering the Federal Government's administration of delegations, states:

- (b) A State may enter into a delegation of authority under this part [1229] without affecting a State's ability to enter into a cooperative agreement under part [1]228 of this chapter.

Summary

In parts 1227 and 1228, this collection of information is necessary in order for States and Tribes to conduct audits and related investigations of Federal and Indian oil, gas, coal, any other solid minerals, and geothermal royalty revenues from Federal and Indian Tribal leased lands. Part 1229 requires the States or Tribes to respond to this collection of information in order to obtain the benefit of a cooperative agreement. ONRR protects proprietary information submitted under this collection. ONRR does not collect items of a sensitive nature.

- 3. Describe whether, and to what extent, the collection of information involves the use of automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses, and the basis for the decision for adopting this means of collection. Also describe any consideration of using information technology to reduce burden and specifically how this collection meets GPEA requirements.

ONRR continues to strive for full implementation of the Government Paperwork Elimination Act and encourages States and Tribes to use electronic reporting in any phase of this information collection. ONRR estimates States and Tribes will submit on average, at least 60 percent of the activity conducted under this information collection via electronic technology. Currently, the remaining States and Tribes choose to provide hard-copy information when submitting delegation proposals, vouchers, progress reports, and work plans. Therefore, it is not cost effective to fully convert this information collection to electronic format

- 4. Describe efforts to identify duplication. Show specifically why any similar information already available cannot be used or modified for use for the purposes described in Item 2 above.

Each cooperative agreement and the information collected are unique to that particular State or Tribe. The information that ONRR receives does not duplicate information any other Federal agency collects. There is no similar information that we can use or modify for this collection.

- 5. If the collection of information impacts small businesses or other small entities, describe any methods used to minimize burden.

There is no adverse impact on small businesses. According to OMB's definition of small entities, there are no small State entities. There are six small Tribal entities. ONRR has streamlined the process of requesting a cooperative agreement. We also provide telephone assistance, written guidelines, and onsite assistance for the preparation of cooperative agreements, quarterly reimbursement vouchers, and annual work plans and budgets to all participating States and Tribes. In addition, ONRR provides periodic training, reporter handbooks, and Internet access to current information on our website.

6. Describe the consequence to Federal program or policy activities if the collection is not conducted or is conducted less frequently, as well as any technical or legal obstacles to reducing burden.

The regulations require ONRR to collect this information as prescribed in 30 CFR parts 1227, 1228, and 1229. If we do not collect this information or collect it less frequently, we could not fulfill our administrative or fiduciary responsibilities. There are no technical obstacles to reducing the burden.

7. Explain any special circumstances that would cause an information collection to be conducted in a manner:

- * requiring respondents to report information to the agency more often than quarterly;

Title 30 CFR 1227.112(d) and 1229.109(b) prescribe States to submit quarterly vouchers. However, some States voluntarily provide vouchers on a monthly basis. Likewise, §1228.105(c) prescribes Tribes to submit quarterly vouchers.

- * requiring respondents to prepare a written response to a collection of information in fewer than 30 days after receipt of it;

There are no special circumstances with respect to 5 CFR 1320.5(d)(2)(ii).

- * requiring respondents to submit more than an original and two copies of any document;

There are no special circumstances with respect to 5 CFR 1320.5(d)(2)(iii).

- * requiring respondents to retain records, other than health, medical, government contract, grant-in-aid, or tax records, for more than three years;

Under 30 CFR 1228.103, States or Tribes entering into a cooperative agreement must retain all records, reports, working papers, and any backup materials for a period specified by ONRR. This period is the length of the contract of six years and any additional time for ONRR to complete a review of those records. Under §1227.200(d), States must maintain all Federal records obtained or created under the delegated function for seven years. Also, States and Tribes must maintain all audit records until the audit is closed at which time they have two years to transfer those records to ONRR. In turn, ONRR transfers the records to the National Archives and Records Administration.

- * in connection with a statistical survey that is not designed to produce valid and reliable results that can be generalized to the universe of study;

There are no special circumstances with respect to 5 CFR 1320.5(d)(2)(v).

- * requiring the use of a statistical data classification that has not been reviewed and approved by OMB;

There are no special circumstances with respect to 5 CFR 1320.5(d)(2)(vi).

- * that includes a pledge of confidentiality that is not supported by authority established in statute or regulation, that is not supported by disclosure and data security policies that are consistent with the pledge, or which unnecessarily impedes sharing of data with other agencies for compatible confidential use; or

There are no special circumstances with respect to 5 CFR 1320.5(d)(2)(vii).

- * requiring respondents to submit proprietary trade secrets, or other confidential information, unless the agency can demonstrate that it has instituted procedures to protect the information's confidentiality to the extent permitted by law.

There are no special circumstances with respect to 5 CFR 1320.5(d)(2)(viii).

8. If applicable, provide a copy and identify the date and page number of publication in the Federal Register of the agency's notice, required by 5 CFR 1320.8(d), soliciting comments on the information collection prior to submission to OMB. Summarize public comments received in response to that notice and in response to the PRA statement associated with the collection over the past three years, and describe actions taken by the agency in response to these comments. Specifically address comments received on cost and hour burden.

Describe efforts to consult with persons outside the agency to obtain their views on the availability of data, frequency of collection, the clarity of instructions and recordkeeping, disclosure, or reporting format (if any), and on the data elements to be recorded, disclosed, or reported.

Consultation with representatives of those from whom information is to be obtained or those who must compile records should occur at least once every three years — even if the collection of information activity is the same as in prior periods. There may be circumstances that may preclude consultation in a specific situation. These circumstances should be explained.

As required in 5 CFR 1320.8(d), ONRR published a 60-day notice in the Federal Register June 5, 2018 (83 FR 26081). We did not receive any unsolicited comments in response to the Federal Register notice (FRN).

ONRR maintains regular, ongoing contact with companies. We provide toll-free telephone assistance and encourage customer feedback as we respond to questions regarding requirements. We address issues as they come up and continually improve our processes.

Frequent and routine contact between participating States or Indian Tribes and ONRR employees allows participants to keep abreast of current issues in this cooperative program. ONRR assists States and Indian Tribes in preparing their cooperative agreement proposals, statements of work, work plans, and budgets. ONRR provides a package of instructions and examples, makes personal visits, and provides assistance over the telephone.

Program staff made a sincere effort to elicit meaningful feedback. They contacted the States and Tribes listed below regarding the 60-day Federal Register notice and the burden hour estimates. Then they sent FRN copies via electronic mail, soliciting comments from the following States and Tribes, and received no revisions to our current estimates.

Contacts made / comments received:

We contacted three States or Tribes. The questions we asked, the comments we received, and ONRR's responses to the comments received are as follows:

1. State: Montana Department of Revenue
Address: 125 North Roberts
Helena, MT 59601
Phone number: 406-444-3584

Questions and Comments:

Q. Is the collection necessary to the proper functions of the ONRR?

A. State delegations are required to submit written proposals to ONRR to be allowed to perform certain investigative functions. To be properly reimbursed for these activities we must at least submit quarterly reimbursement vouchers and quarterly progress reports concerning these activities. In our case we submit monthly reimbursement vouchers and quarterly progress reports.

In our working relationship with ONRR this data submission and collection process is continually reviewed and updated for efficiencies to reduce the burden for both ONRR and the States and Tribes.

Q. Will this information be processed and used in a timely manner?

A. Our budget proposal information is reviewed annually as a collective group for the States and Tribes. We receive timely feedback from ONRR on our proposals to approve these requests. Our monthly reimbursement vouchers are reviewed promptly so we receive our monies.

Additionally, recent ONRR organizational structural changes in State and Tribal Administration have improved this process for the States and Tribes.

Q. Is the estimate of burden accurate?

A. The time estimates seem reasonable for Part 1227-Delegation to States. Actual times of course will vary from delegation to delegation depending upon the circumstances of each State and Tribal government.

Q. How might the ONRR enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected

A. Certain required documents for our annual contract modifications are out of ONRR's control. Frequent standard document review by ONRR will continue to enhance the quality and clarity of the document information required to be sent by the States and received by ONRR.

Q. How might the ONRR minimize the burden of this collection on the respondents, including through the use of information technology.

A. We are regularly sending and receiving electronic copies of all documents to keep paper to a minimum. Soon a new Operational Management Tool (OMT) will streamline our reporting of quarterly progress reports and annual workplans. These important document improvement processes take place through technology improvements in audit administration through the cooperative efforts of the States, Tribes, and ONRR.

ONRR Response: We are happy to see that the Montana Department of Revenue is looking forward to full implementation of OMT as we agree that this should reduce some information collection burden.

2. State: North Dakota State Auditor's Office, Royalty Audit Section
Address: 425 North 5th Street – 3rd Floor
Bismarck, ND 58501-40333
Phone Number: 701-250-4686

Questions and Comments:

Q. Is the collection necessary to the proper functions of the ONRR?

A. ONRR is collecting the necessary cost and performance reporting to properly perform their oversight function as laid out in the delegation contracts, OMB circulars, the Code of Federal Regulations and CFDA 15.427.

Q. Will this information be processed and used in a timely manner?

A. We have never had any of our budget, work plan, performance reporting or reimbursement requests not be processed timely. Even with political changes our budgets have always been approved in a timely manner. All proposed changes to the work plan have also been approved timely.

Q. Is the estimate of burden accurate?

A. The estimates of burden will vary based on the size of a delegation. For our delegation the estimates for contract proposal and compensation are reasonable. The estimates for the performance of delegated functions are all reasonable except for processing of production and royalty reports and performing automated verifications. Our state does not perform these functions, nor is the state aware of a delegation that does perform these function, but it appears the estimated hours for reporting and record keeping would be low if a delegation was to take over those functions.

Q. How might the ONRR enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected?

A. The area that could be improved on is the use of technology. Very little of the information is submitted electronically, yet ONRR now requires all companies to report royalties electronically. For our progress reports, we are using the OMT CR system which tracks the progress of each case, yet we still have to manually complete a progress report and update the status of each case and submit that to ONRR. Having a workable system(s) to perform our audits and compliance reviews in and have them electronically tracked and reported on would greatly enhance the quality and utility of the information. Allowing the delegations to use a VPN to remotely access the ONRR systems instead of the current method would save delegations time and resources. ONRR employees when working remotely access the ONRR systems via a VPN.

Q. How might the ONRR minimize the burden of this collection on the respondents, including through the use of information technology?"

A. See above.

ONRR Response: We are looking into more ways were we can use technology to improve our efficiencies and reduce the burden for our cooperative agreements. Some of the suggestions s mentioned by the North Dakota State Auditor's Office, Royalty Audit Section, such as electronic progress reports we hope to have implemented once OMT is being utilized for both audits and compliance reviews.

3. Tribe: Ute Mountain Ute Tribe, Tribal Mineral Audits
Address: 519 Sunset Blvd
Towaoc, CO 81334-0069
Phone number: 970-564-5453

Questions and Comments:

Q. Is the collection necessary to the proper function of the ONRR?

A. Entities that quantify functionalities can better assess the values, successes, or failures of a program, therefore, the collection of data does seem necessary.

Q. Is the estimate of burden accurate?

A. In the review of listed Burden Breakdowns of Tribes, I would say the Hour Burden per Response is a fair estimate of burden hours. Respondent resources vary and therefore hours will vary. As technology facilitates the maintenance of records, that number could show a decline over time.

Q. How might the ONRR enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected?

A. What ONRR might do to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information collected is to develop an expanded list that correlates with the CFRs in the study, which are incorporated in the cooperative agreements requirements. This would facilitate input of hours burden. The cooperative agreements all have the same requirements which are based on the CFRs. In the compilation of total annual responses by defined subset functions, the derived Annual Burden Hours would be more accurate.

Q. How might the ONRR minimize the burden of this collection on the respondents, including through the use of information technology?

A. ONRR might minimize the burden of this collection by providing a standardized question list that coincides with the CFR/cooperative agreement requirements (see #4 above).

ONRR Response: We are also hopeful that the burden hours decrease over time with new technology.

9. Explain any decision to provide any payment or gift to respondents, other than remuneration of contractors or grantees.

ONRR will reimburse the documented expenditures of the States or Tribes who have an approved cooperative audit agreement, work plan, and budget for eligible costs of performing audits and investigations. We will not provide a gift to respondents in this collection.

10. Describe any assurance of confidentiality provided to respondents and the basis for the assurance in statute, regulation, or agency policy.

Commercial or financial information payors provide to ONRR, relative to minerals that they removed from Federal and Indian leases may be proprietary. FOGRMA, as amended (30 U.S.C. 1733), and the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552(b)(4)) and its implementing regulations (43 CFR 2) established standards to protect trade secrets and proprietary and other information. In addition, the Indian Mineral Development Act of 1982 (25 U.S.C. 2103) provides that the Department shall hold as privileged and proprietary all information in its possession related to Indian minerals agreement that the Act covers. Strict security measures at ONRR control storage of, and access to, proprietary information.

Conditional requirements of a cooperative agreement are that States and Tribes must:

- Consent in writing to restrict the dissemination of trade secrets and proprietary and other confidential information to those who are directly involved in an audit or investigation and who have a need to know.
- Accept liability for wrongful disclosure of proprietary information.
- Demonstrate that proprietary information is essential for conducting an audit or investigation and waive sovereign immunity by express consent for wrongful disclosure by such Tribe.

11. Provide additional justification for any questions of a sensitive nature, such as sexual behavior and attitudes, religious beliefs, and other matters that are commonly considered private. This justification should include the reasons why the agency considers the questions necessary, the specific uses to be made of the information, the explanation to be given to persons from whom the information is requested, and any steps to be taken to obtain their consent.

The collection does not include sensitive or private questions.

12. Provide estimates of the hour burden of the collection of information. The statement should:

- * Indicate the number of respondents, frequency of response, annual hour burden, and an explanation of how the burden was estimated. Unless directed to do so, agencies should not conduct special surveys to obtain information on which to base hour burden estimates.

Consultation with a sample (fewer than 10) of potential respondents is desirable. If the hour burden on respondents is expected to vary widely because of differences in activity, size, or complexity, show the range of estimated hour burden, and explain the reasons for the variance. Generally, estimates should not include burden hours for customary and usual business practices.

There are 15 respondents (9 States and 6 Indian Tribes).

- The 9 States are Alaska, California, Colorado, Montana, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Utah, and Wyoming.
- The 6 Tribes are Blackfeet Nation, Navajo Nation, Shoshone and Arapaho Tribes, Southern Ute Tribe, Ute Tribe, and Ute Mountain Ute Tribe.

ONRR estimates that there will be 210 responses each year from these 15 respondents who have cooperative/delegated audit agreements. Based on the functions performed, responses are monthly, quarterly, annually, on occasion, and varied. There are 108 fulltime equivalents (FTEs) who perform audit or audit support activities for the 15 States and Tribes. The total estimated annual reporting and recordkeeping hour burden is 16,697 (9,847 for States and 6,850 for Tribes).

* If this request for approval covers more than one form, provide separate hour burden estimates for each form and aggregate the hour burdens

There is no form for this information collection.

* Provide estimates of annualized cost to respondents for the hour burdens for collections of information, identifying and using appropriate wage rate categories. The cost of contracting out or paying outside parties for information collection activities should not be included here.

We estimate the total annual cost to respondents is $895,126 ($527,898 + $367,229). The Federal Government reimburses this cost as part of their Cooperative Agreements.

Cost Breakout

Information Collections (ICs)	Number of Respondents	Number of Responses	Total Hours	Total Cost
1. States (30 CFR parts 1227 and 1229)	9	166	9,847	$527,898
2. Indian Tribes (30 CFR part 1228)	6	44	6,850	$367,228
TOTAL	15	210	16,697	$895,126

The actual average cost factor for the States and Tribes is $53.61 per burden hour (includes any compensation benefits multiplier), derived from their paid FY 2019 proposed budget. Based on this cost factor of $53.61 per burden hour, the total estimated annual cost is $895,126.

- States’ Estimated Annual Reporting and Recordkeeping Burden Hours:
  - From the 9 States, we estimate a total of 166 responses (147 related to 30 CFR part 1227 and 19 related to part 1229) for reporting and recordkeeping.
  - We estimate the total annual burden hours for reporting and recordkeeping are 9,847 hours (9,828 from 30 CFR part 1227 and 19 from part 1229). Based on a cost factor of $53.61 per burden hour, we estimate the total annual cost to States is $527,898 (9,847 burden hours x $53.61 per hour).
- Tribes’ Estimated Annual Reporting and Recordkeeping Burden Hours:
  - From the 6 Tribes, we estimate a total of 44 responses (related to 30 CFR part 1228) for reporting and recordkeeping.
  - We estimate the total annual burden hours for reporting and recordkeeping are 6,850 hours. Based on a cost factor of $53.61 per burden hour, we estimate the total annual cost to Indian Tribes is $367,229 (6,850 burden hours x $53.61 per hour).

The hour burden estimates include the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. We have not included in our estimates certain requirements performed in the normal course of business, that are considered usual and customary.

The Federal Government, from current appropriations, will reimburse eligible costs for administration and performance of work under delegated and cooperative agreements.

TOTAL BURDEN			210	16,697

NOTE: Tribal estimates increased due to feedback from two Tribes; we averaged their burden hour responses and determined that their estimates were accurate according to recent historical data.

13. Provide an estimate of the total annual non-hour cost burden to respondents or record-keepers resulting from the collection of information. (Do not include the cost of any hour burden already reflected in item 12.)

* The cost estimate should be split into two components: (a) a total capital and start-up cost component (annualized over its expected useful life) and (b) a total operation and maintenance and purchase of services component. The estimates should take into account costs associated with generating, maintaining, and disclosing or providing the information (including filing fees paid for form processing). Include descriptions of methods used to estimate major cost factors including system and technology acquisition, expected useful life of capital equipment, the discount rate(s), and the time period over which costs will be incurred. Capital and start-up costs include, among other items, preparations for collecting information such as purchasing computers and software; monitoring, sampling, drilling and testing equipment; and record storage facilities.

* If cost estimates are expected to vary widely, agencies should present ranges of cost burdens and explain the reasons for the variance. The cost of purchasing or contracting out information collection services should be a part of this cost burden estimate. In developing cost burden estimates, agencies may consult with a sample of respondents (fewer than 10), utilize the 60-day pre-OMB submission public comment process and use existing economic or regulatory impact analysis associated with the rulemaking containing the information collection, as appropriate.

* Generally, estimates should not include purchases of equipment or services, or portions thereof, made: (1) prior to October 1, 1995, (2) to achieve regulatory compliance with requirements not associated with the information collection, (3) for reasons other than to provide information or keep records for the government or (4) as part of customary and usual business or private practices.

We have identified no “non-hour” cost burdens for this collection of information.

14. Provide estimates of annualized cost to the Federal Government. Also, provide a description of the method used to estimate cost, which should include quantification of hours, operational expenses (such as equipment, overhead, printing, and support staff), and any other expense that would not have been incurred without this collection of information.

To analyze, review, and process the information, the Federal Government spends an average of 1 hour for each hour spent by respondents. The total estimated Federal Government time is 16,697 hours. The total estimated burden to the Federal Government is based on time needed to complete all data gathering requirements, analyze submissions in response to this information collection, and approve payment for eligible costs. These tasks are currently performed by employees paid according to the United States Office of Personnel Management (OPM) 2018 General Schedule (GS), which is located at <https://www.opm.gov/policy-data-oversight/pay-leave/salaries-wages/2018/general-schedule/>. Based on a weighted average cost factor of $70 per burden hour, the total annual estimated cost burden on the Federal Government is $1,168,790 (16,697 hours x $70/hour = $1,168,790).

15. Explain the reasons for any program changes or adjustments in hour or cost burden.

Currently Approved OMB Burden Hour Inventory	Program Change Estimated Burden Hours	Adjustment Change Estimated Burden Hours	Total Estimated Burden Hours
17,705	0	-1,008	16,697

There is no program change for this information collection. However, there is an adjustment decrease of 1,008 burden hours. This is because the state of Texas did not renew their Delegation Agreement after it ended on September 30, 2016.

16. For collections of information whose results will be published, outline plans for tabulation and publication. Address any complex analytical techniques that will be used. Provide the time schedule for the entire project, including beginning and ending dates of the collection of information, completion of report, publication dates, and other actions.

ONRR will not publish the data.

17. If seeking approval to not display the expiration date for OMB approval of the information collection, explain the reasons that display would be inappropriate.

ONRR will not display the OMB control number and expiration date because there is not an information collection form to display it on.

18. Explain each exception to the topics of the certification statement identified in "Certification for Paperwork Reduction Act Submissions."

To the extent that the topics apply to this collection of information, we are not making any exceptions to the "Certification for Paperwork Reduction Act Submissions."
