The Lautenberg Amendment to the Gun Control Act of 1968 (18 U.S.C. § 922) makes it unlawful for any person who has been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence to ship, transport, possess, or receive firearms or ammunition. This prohibition applies to persons convicted of such misdemeanors at any time.

A misdemeanor crime of domestic violence is defined as one that includes the use or attempted use of physical force, or the threatened use of a deadly weapon, committed by a current or former spouse, parent or guardian of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabiting with or has cohabited with the victim as a spouse, parent, or guardian, or by a person similarly situated to a spouse, parent or guardian of the victim.

Failure to provide the requested information will result in automatic disqualification as an applicant with the United States Park Police. If you have any questions pertaining to this legislation, please contact [Insert Recruiter Name] at [Insert telephone number].

To resolve any question of whether you are affected by the statute, that is, whether you have ever been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence within the meaning of the statute, you should contact a United States Park Police Personnel representative or a private attorney.
