

Internal Revenue Service
Supporting Statement
OMB Number 1545-0140
Form 2210 and Form 2210-F

1. CIRCUMSTANCES NECESSITATING COLLECTION OF INFORMATION

Under Internal Revenue Code section 6654 and regulations section 1.6654-1 (Underpayment of Estimated Tax by Individuals, Estates, and Trusts), a taxpayer is liable for a penalty if he or she does not estimate and pay the correct amount of tax for the taxable year. Forms 2210 for individuals, trusts, and estates, and 2210-F for farmers and fisherman, are used to figure the amount of tax that should have been paid and compute the penalty, if applicable.

2. USE OF DATA

These forms contain data needed by the Service to verify whether the penalty for underpayment of tax applies, and if so, whether the penalty is properly computed.

3. USE OF IMPROVED INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY TO REDUCE BURDEN

We are currently offering electronic filing on Forms 2210 and 2210-F.

4. EFFORTS TO IDENTIFY DUPLICATION

The information obtained through this collection is unique and is not already available for use or adaptation from another source.

5. METHODS TO MINIMIZE BURDEN ON SMALL BUSINESSES OR OTHER SMALL ENTITIES

There is no burden on small businesses or entities by this collection due to the inapplicability of the authorizing statute to this type of entity.

6. CONSEQUENCES OF LESS FREQUENT COLLECTION ON FEDERAL PROGRAMS OR POLICY ACTIVITIES

A less frequent collection would result in the IRS being unable to determine the correct amount of tax that should have been paid by individuals, trust and estates, unable to compute the correct amount of penalty, if applicable and could result in the IRS being unable to meet its mission.

7. SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES REQUIRING DATA COLLECTION TO BE INCONSISTENT WITH GUIDELINES IN 5 CFR 1320.5(d)(2)

There are no special circumstances requiring data collection to be inconsistent with Guidelines in 5 CFR 1320.5(d)(2).

8. CONSULTATION WITH INDIVIDUALS OUTSIDE OF THE AGENCY ON AVAILABILITY OF DATA, FREQUENCY OF COLLECTION, CLARITY OF INSTRUCTIONS AND FORMS, AND DATA ELEMENTS

In response to the Federal Register Notice dated April 30, 2018 (83 FR 18871), we received no comments during the comment period regarding Forms 2210 and 2210-F.

9. EXPLANATION OF DECISION TO PROVIDE ANY PAYMENT OR GIFT TO RESPONDENTS

All burden related to attaching this form to an individuals' tax return is accounted for and reported in the applicable tax return under OMB Number 1545-0074. Burden reported above is specifically related to maintenance and reporting of specific information for all other filers such as estates and trusts on the Form 2210 and farmers and fisherman on the Form 2210-F.

The following regulation imposes no additional burden. Please continue to assign OMB number 1545-0140 to this regulation.

13. ESTIMATED TOTAL ANNUAL COST BURDEN TO RESPONDENTS

To ensure more accuracy and consistency across its information collections, IRS is currently in the process of revising the methodology it uses to estimate burden and costs. Once this methodology is complete, IRS will update this information collection to reflect a more precise estimate of burden and costs.

14. ESTIMATED ANNUALIZED COST TO THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

The Federal government cost estimate is based on a model that considers the following three cost factors for each information product: aggregate labor costs for development, including annualized start up expenses, operating and maintenance expenses, and distribution of the product that collects the information.

The government computes cost using a multi-step process. First, the government creates a weighted factor for the level of effort to create each information collection product based on variables such as; complexity, number of pages, type of product and frequency of revision. Second, the total costs associated with developing the product such as labor cost, and operating expenses associated with the downstream impact such as support functions, are added together to obtain the aggregated total cost. Then, the aggregated total cost and factor are multiplied together to obtain the aggregated cost per product. Lastly, the aggregated cost per product is added to the cost of shipping and printing each product to IRS offices, National Distribution Center, libraries and other outlets. The result is the Government cost estimate per product.

The government cost estimate for this collection is summarized in the table below.

Product	Aggregate Cost per Product (factor applied)		Printing and Distribution		Government Cost Estimate per Product
Form 2210 (Long/Short)	70,488	+	1,145	=	71,633
Form 2210 Instructions	15,105	+	638	=	15,743
Form 2210-F	38,730	+	0	=	38,730
Form 2210-F Instructions	49,157	+	0	=	49,157
Grand Total	173,480		1,783		175,263
Table costs are based on 2016 actuals obtained from IRS Chief Financial Office and Media and Publications
* New product costs will be included in the next collection update.

15. REASONS FOR CHANGE IN BURDEN

In response to the previous terms of clearance issued by OMB, all burden related to, attaching this form to, an “individuals’ tax return” is accounted for and reported in the applicable tax return under OMB Number 1545-0074. Burden reported above is specifically related to maintenance and reporting of specific information for all other filers such as estates and trusts on the Form 2210 and farmers and fisherman on the Form 2210-F.

We are making this submission to renew the OMB approval.

16. PLANS FOR TABULATION, STATISTICAL ANALYSIS AND PUBLICATION

There are no plans for tabulation, statistical analysis and publication.

17. REASONS WHY DISPLAYING THE OMB EXPIRATION DATE IS INAPPROPRIATE

IRS believes that displaying the OMB expiration date is inappropriate because it could cause confusion by leading taxpayers to believe that the form sunsets as of the expiration date. Taxpayers are not likely to be aware that the Service intends to request renewal of the OMB approval and obtain a new expiration date before the old one expires.

18. EXCEPTION TO THE CERTIFICATION STATEMENT ON OMB FORM 83-I

There are no exceptions to the certification statement.

Note: The following paragraph applies to all of the collections of information in this submission:

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless the collection of information displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a collection of information must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any internal revenue law. Generally, tax returns and tax return information are confidential, as required by 26 U.S.C. 6103.
