I understand:

- I have the right to revoke this authorization at any time before any records are disclosed;
- The Social Security Administration may request all records about me from any financial institution;
- Any information obtained will be kept confidential;
- I have the right to obtain a copy of the record which the financial institution keeps concerning the instances when it has disclosed records to a government authority unless the records were disclosed because of a court order; and
- This authorization is not required as a condition of doing business with any financial institution.

The checkbox below shows the reason you are giving us your authorization to contact financial institutions:

Supplemental Security Income Eligibility

- The Social Security Administration will request records to determine initial or continuing eligibility and the accuracy of the payment for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits.
- If I am an applicant or recipient, failing to provide or revoking my authorization will result in a denial or suspension of SSI benefits.
- If I am a person whose income and resources the Social Security Administration considers as being available to an applicant or recipient, failing to provide or revoking my authorization may result in a denial of benefits for the applicant or a suspension of benefits for the recipient.
- This authorization is in effect until the earliest of: 1) a final adverse decision on my application for benefits, 2) the cessation of my eligibility for benefits, or 3) my revocation of this authorization in a written notification to the Social Security Administration.

Waiver Determination

- The Social Security Administration will request records to determine the ability to repay an overpayment in conjunction with a waiver determination.
- Failing to provide or revoking my authorization may result in the Social Security Administration determining, on that basis, that adjustment or recovery of the overpayment will not deprive me of funds to pay my bills for food, clothing, housing, medical care, or other necessary expenses.
- This authorization is in effect until the earliest of: 1) a final decision on whether adjustment or recovery of my overpayment would deprive me of funds to pay my bills for food, clothing, housing, medical care, or other necessary expenses; or 2) my revocation of this authorization in a written notification to the Social Security Administration.

I authorize any custodian of records at this financial institution to disclose to the Social Security Administration any records about my financial business or that of the person named above whom I legally represent or whose benefits I manage.

Or, failing to provide the information may prevent us from waiving an overpayment.~~

~~We rarely use the information you supply for any purpose other than what we state above, however, we may use the information for the administration of our programs including sharing information:~~

- ~~1. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from our records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans Affairs);~~

Additional information about this and other system of records notices and our programs are available from our Internet website at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.~~

~~We may share the information you provide to other health agencies through computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local government agencies.
